PREFACE.

Believing the Masonic Fraternity have long wanted, and would liberally patronize, a complete and practical collection of Music for the various public and private Ceremonies and Festivals of the Order, the compiler of the following pages has been for several years collecting material for such a work, and now presents, as the result of his labors, The Masonic Harp, in the hope that it will be found adapted to the purpose. That the work is faultless, he does not for a moment suppose, but that it is many steps in advance of any heretofore published for the purpose, he fully believes. His desire has been to furnish a complete collection of appropriate Odes, Hymns, &c., for all ordinary Masonic Occasions, and if he has failed in his effort, he will still have the satisfaction of knowing that "it was in his heart" to present a good work.

With very few exceptions, the tunes in the Harp are those which have become established favorites, and are widely known and admired. It was for this reason they were selected. In arranging them for Masonic use, much care has been taken to give the Melody and Bass as they are most universally known, and with this view, not one note of either has been knowingly changed.

Believing that the Craft stood in need of a much larger variety of Odes and Hymns of a devotional character, the compiler has "adapted" more than one hundred such, from various authors, and hopes they will prove acceptable.

The insertion of a complete "Masonic Burial Service," and also a "Burial Service for the Orders of Knighthood," will be found not only convenient for such occasions, but will add much to the interest and general effect of such services.

Many of the Hymns and Odes marked "Opening" will answer equally as well for "Closing," and vice versa; and many of those marked for a particular degree, are nearly or quite as appropriate for some other degrees. The Chorister (and every Masonic Body should have one) will take this fact into consideration when making his selections.

Most of the Tunes have several sets of verses appropriate for them, upon the same and facing pages, which will ordinarily afford a sufficient variety for the various occasions, but, if necessary, the use of two books by each singer, (as in Church Chords,) will add a ten or even twenty fold greater range for selection, and must prove amply sufficient for all practical purposes.

The Compiler acknowledges his great obligations to Mr. Samuel M. Downs, of this place, for his assistance in arranging Music for The Harp, and for his original compositions, which give additional value to the work; and also to Bros. Rob. Morris, J. B. Taylor, Cornelius Moore, and others, for their kind permission to use many of their excellent compositions.

With the hope that the use of the Hymns and Odes contained in it, will add to the interest and effect of the beautiful ceremonies of the Fraternity, and meet their approval, The Masonic Harp is now presented.

MASONIC HARP.

OPENING HYMN.

ROCKINGHAM. L. M.

1st.

1. Great God of na-tions now to thee, Our hymn of grat-i-tude we raise;

2d.

2. Great God! pre-serve us in thy fear, In dan-gers still our guardian be;

BASS.

With hum-ble heart and bending knee, We of-fer thee our song of praise.

Oh spread thy truth's bright precepts here; May every bro-ther wor-ship thee.

2 Opening Encampment.

- 1 The peace which God alone reveals,
And by his word of grace imparts,
Which only the believer feels,
Direct, and keep, and cheer our hearts.
- 2 And may the holy Three in One,
The Father, Word, and Comforter,
Pour an abundant blessing down
On every soul assembled here.

3 Opening

- 1 How blest the sacred tie, that binds
In sweet communion kindred minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes
are one!
- 4 Together oft they seek the place
Where Friendship smiles on every face;
How high, how strong their raptures swell,
There's none but kindred souls can tell.
- 1 Nor shall the glowing flame expire,
When dimly burn frail nature's fire;
Then shall they meet in realms above—
▲ heaven of joy, a heaven of love.

4 Opening.

- 1 Bless, O my soul, the living God,
Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad
Let all the powers within me join,
In work and worship so divine.
- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

5 Opening.

- 1 From east to west, o'er land and sea,
Where brothers meet, and friends agree
Let incense rise from hearts sincere,
The dearest offering gathered here.
- 2 Our trust reposed in God alone,
Who ne'er will contrite hearts disown;
Our faith shall mark that holy light,
Whose beams our dearest joys unite.

6 Opening.

- Be thou exalted, O our God,
Above the heavens, where angels dwell
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

1st.
 ie thou, O God, ex - alt - ed high, And as thy glo - ry fills the sky, id.
 Be thou, O God, ex - alt - ed high, And as thy glo - ry fills the sky,
 BASS.

So let it be on earth display'd, Till thou art here as there o-bey'd.
 So let it be on earth displayed, Till thou art here as there o-bey'd.

8 Mark Master. Work.

- 1 Another six days work is done;
Another Sabbath is begun;
Return, my soul! enjoy thy rest!
Improve the day thy God hath blessed.
- 2 In holy duties let the day —
In holy pleasures pass away!
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end!

9 Closing Hymn.

- 1 Come, brothers, ere to-night we part,
Join every voice and every heart;
One solemn hymn to God we'll raise,
One closing song of grateful praise.
- 2 Here, brothers, we may meet no more,
But there is yet a happier shore;
And there, released from toil and pain,
Dear brothers, we shall meet again.

10 Mark Master. Closing.

- 1 Accept, Great Builder of the skies,
Our heart-felt acts of sacrifice!
Each brother found a living stone,
While bending low before Thy throne.
- 2 While Craftsmen true their work prepare,
With thoughts unstained, and holy care,
May each be fitly formed, and placed
Where LOVE DIVINE his hopes had traced.

11 Dedication Ode.*

- 1 Great Architect of heaven and earth,
To whom all nature owes its birth;
Thou spoke! and vast creation stood,
Surveyed the work — pronounced it good
- 2 Lord, can'st thou deign to own and bless
This humble dome, this sacred place?
Oh! let thy spirit's presence shine
Within these walls — this house of thine.
- 3 'Twas reared in honor of thy name;
Here kindle, Lord, the sacred flame:
Oh! make it burn in every heart,
And never from this place depart.
- 4 Lord, here the wants of all supply,
And fit our souls to dwell on high,
From service in this humble place,
Raise us to praise thee face to face.

12 Royal Arch. Closing.

- 1 Almighty Father! heavenly King,
Before whose Sacred Name we bend,
Accept the praises which we sing,
And to our humble prayer attend
- 2 Grant us, great God! thy powerful aid
To guide us through this vale of tears
Oh let thy goodness be displayed,
To soothe the mind, and calm our fears

* Suitable also for opening or closing a Lodge

13 Initiation, or Raising.

Dangers of every form attend
Your steps, as onward you proceed;
No earthly power can now befriend,
Or aid you in this time of need.

Confide your trust in him alone,
Who rules all things above, below;
Send your petitions to his throne,
For he alone can help you now.

14 Dedication Masonic Hall.

Genius of Masonry, descend,
And with thee bring thy spotless train;
Constant our sacred rites attend,
While we adore thy peaceful reign.

(Dedication to Freemasonry.)

Bring with thee Virtue, brightest maid;
Bring Love, bring Truth, and Friendship
here,
While kind Relief will lend her aid,
To smooth the wrinkled brow of care.

(Dedication to Virtue.)

1 Come Charity, with goodness crowned,
Encircled in thy heavenly robe;
Diffuse thy blessings all around,
To every corner of the globe.

(Dedication to Universal Benevolence.)

1 To Heaven's high Architect all praise,
All praise, all gratitude be given,
Who deigned the human soul to raise,
By mystic secrets sprung from heaven.

15 Closing Hymn.

1 Once more, O Lord, let grateful praise,
From every heart to thee ascend;
Thou art the guardian of our days,
Our first, our best, and changeless friend.

2 Hear, now, our parting hymn of praise,
And bind our hearts in love divine;
O, may we walk in wisdom's ways,
And ever feel that we are thine.

16 Opening, or Closing.

1 Great Lord of earth, and seas, and skies!
Thy wealth the needed world supplies;
And safe beneath thy guardian arm,
We live secured from every harm.

To thee we cheerful homage bring;
Thy grate'ul hymns thy praises sing;
On thee we ever will depend,
Thou art our sure, our faithful friend.

17 Opening.

1 Help us to praise thee, Lord of light,
Help us thy boundless love declare;
And while we look to thee this night,
Aid us, and hearken to our prayer.

2 Thy light upon our evening pour;
Oh! may our souls no sunset see;
But death to us an open door
Of an eternal morning be.

18 Anniversary Ode.

1 Hail! Masonry, thou craft divine!
Come, Brethren, let us cheerful join,
To celebrate this happy day,
And homage to our Master pay.

2 Next sing, my muse, our Warden's praise
With chorus loud, in tuneful lays;
Oh! may these columns ne'er decay,
Until the world dissolves away.

3 Come, Brethren cheerful, join with me,
To sing the praise of Masonry;
The noble, faithful, and the brave,
Whose Art shall live beyond the grave.

19 Initiation, or Crafting.

1 Thus far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Oh! may his love, with sweet control,
Bind every passion of my soul;
Bid every vain desire depart,
And dwell forever in my heart.

20 Opening, or Closing.

1 Now let my soul, eternal King,
To thee its grateful tribute bring;
My knee with humble homage bow
My tongue perform its solemn vow

2 Oh let my heart, oh let my song,
Through endless years thy praise prolong
Let distant climes thy name adore,
Till time and nature are no more.

21 Installation, or Dedication.

1 Almighty Ruler of the skies,
Through all the earth thy name is spread
And thine eternal glories rise
Above the heavens thy hands have made

2 To thee the voices of the young
Their grateful notes of honor raise
And babes, with uninstru'd tongue
Declare the wonders of thy praise

3 Eternal God! celestial King!
Exalted be thy glorious name;
Let hosts in heaven thy praises sing
And all on earth thy love proclaim.

OPENING.

1st.

1. The heav'n's de-clare thy glo - ry, Lord; In ev - 'ry star thy wis-dom shines

2d.

2. The roll - ing sun, the changing light, And nights and days thy pow'r con-fess;

BASS.

But when our eyes be - hold thy word, We read thy name in fair - er lines

But that blest vol-ume thou hast writ, Re - veals thy jus - tice and thy grace.

Initiation.

- 1 Far from the world's cold strife and pride,
Come join our peaceful, happy band;
Come, stranger, we your feet will guide,
Where truth and love shall hold com-mand.
- 2 Although in untried paths you tread,
And filled, perhaps, with anxious fear;
A brother's faithful hand shall lead
Where doubt and darkness disappear.
- 3 Here may you in our labors join,
And prove yourself a brother true;
All sordid, selfish cares resign,
And keep our sacred truths in view.

Closing.

Come, brothers, ere to-night we part,
Join every voice and every heart;
One solemn hymn to God we'll raise,
One closing song of grateful praise.

- 1 Here, brothers, we may meet no more,
But there is yet a happier shore;
And there, released from toil and pain,
Dear brothers, we shall meet again.

25

Opening.

- 1 Eternal source of every joy!
Well may thy praise our lips employ,
While in thy temple we appear,
Whose goodness crowns the circling year
- 2 Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
Thy hand supports and guides the whole!
The sun is taught by thee to rise,
And darkness when to veil the skies.
- 3 Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days
Demand successive songs of praise;
And be the grateful homage paid,
With morning light and evening shade.

26

Closing.

- 1 Once more, O Lord, let grateful praise,
In songs of joy to thee ascend;
Thou art the guardian of our days,
Our first, our best and changeless friend
- 2 Hear, now, our parting hymn of praise
And bind our hearts in love divine;
O, may we walk in wisdom's ways,
And ever feel that we are thine

27 Installation, or 1 edication.

- 1 Ye happy few, who here extend
In perfect lines, from east to west,
With fervent zeal the Lodge defend,
And lock its secrets in each breast.
- 2 Since ye are met upon the square,
Bid love and friendship jointly reign;
Be peace and harmony your care,
Nor break the adamant chain.
- 3 Behold the planets, how they move,
Yet keep due order as they run;
Their imitate the stars above,
And shine resplendent as the sun.
- 4 Then let us celebrate the praise
Of all who have enriched the art;
Let gratitude our voices raise,
And each true brother bear a part.

28 Opening.

- 1 Genius of Masonry descend,
In mystic numbers while we sing;
Enlarge our souls, the craft defend,
And hither all thy influence bring.
- 2 Oh may our voice to Friendship move;
Be Virtue ours in all its parts;
Let Justice, Harmony, and Love,
Come and possess our faithful hearts.

29 Anniversary.

- 1 Ye gracious powers of choral song,
Attend; inspire your festive throng;
Let harmless mirth, and frolic glee,
Dance sportive at our jubilee.
- 2 We ask no sound of spear or shield,
No trophies of the ensanguined field;
Let Hope, let Faith, and Charity,
Begin and end our jubilee.
- 3 Then call from east to west the world,
The mystic banners are unfurled!
And oh! departed ancients, see
From heaven, and bless our jubilee!
- 4 Be this the general, cordial to all,
A wish that never should be lost,
That all the world may Masons be,
And live and love in jubilee.

30 Opening.

With all my powers of heart and tongue
I'll praise my Maker in my song;
Angels shall hear the notes I raise,
Approve the song, and join the praise.

31 Opening.

- 1 What joy, when brethren dwell combined
Inspiring unity of mind;
'Tis like the sacred unction shed,
On Aaron's venerable head;
When bathed in fragrance, doth respire
His rev'rend beard and rich attire.
- 2 Like dews, which, trickling from the sky
In pearly drops on Hermon lie;
Or balmy vapors, which distill
On Zion's consecrated hill;
For there the Lord his blessing placed,
And these with life eternal graced.

32 Fellow Craft.

- 1 Hail, Masonry, thou Craft divine!
Glory of earth, from heaven revealed;
Which doth with jewels precious shine,
From all but Masons' eyes concealed.
- 2 From scorching heat, from piercing cold,
From beasts whose roar the forest rends,
From the assaults of warriors bold,
The Mason's art mankind defends.
- 3 Sweet fellowship, from envy free,
Friendly converse of brotherhood,
The Lodge's lasting cement be,
Which has for ages firmly stood

33 Funeral Hymn.

- 1 Unvell thy bosom, faithful tomb,
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.
- 2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the silent sleepers here,
And Angels watch their soft repose.
- 3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son,
Passed through the grave, and blest the bed;
Rest here, dear Saint, 'till from his throne
The morning break, and pierce the shades
- 4 Break from thy throne, illustrious Mort
Attend, O Earth, his sovereign word
Restore thy trust, a glorious form;
Let him ascend to meet his Lord.

35 Dedication, or Opening.

- 1 Pour out thy Spirit from on high ;
Lord ! thine assembled servants bless ;
Graces and gifts to each supply,
And clothe us with thy righteousness.
- 2 Within this temple, where we stand
To teach the truth as taught by Thee,
In favor bless this chosen band,
With Wisdom, Strength, and Unity.
- 3 Fervor and Zeal, freely impart ;
Firmness, with meekness from above,
That each may with a faithful heart,
Here labor for the cause of Love.
- 4 And when our work is finished here,
May we in Hope our charge resign :
When thou, Grand Master, shalt appear,
May we and all mankind be thine.

36 Opening, or Initiation.

Lord, while we here our work prepare,
With thoughts unstained, and holy care,
May each be fitly formed, and placed
When Love Divine his hopes had traced.

37 Closing.

- 1 Brothers, with pleasure let us part,
Since we are of one mind and heart ;
No length of days, or distant place,
Can ever break these bands of grace.
- 2 Parting with joy, we'll join and sing
The wonders of our Lord and King ;
Our bodies distant may remove,
But nothing shall divide our love.
- 3 A few more rolling days and years,
Shall end our labors, toils, and fears ;
We soon shall reach that blissful shore,
Where parting shall be known no more.

38 Opening.

- 1 O Lord, behold before thy throne,
A band of brothers lowly bend :
Thy face we seek, thy Name we own,
And pray that thou wilt be our friend
- 2 Grant us, we pray, a willing mind,
To learn what thou would'st have us do
And how we may thy favor find,
And love and serve each other too.

39 Opening, or Consecration.

1 How blest the sacred tie, that binds
In sweet communion kindred minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes
are one.

2 Together oft they seek the place
Where Masons meet with smiling face;
How high, how strong their raptures swell,
There's none but kindred souls can tell.

3 Nor shall the glowing flame expire,
When dimly burns frail nature's fire;
Then shall they meet in realms above,
A heaven of joy, a heaven of love.

40 Closing.

1 Great God, we sing thy mighty hand;
By that supported still we stand:
The opening day thy mercy shows;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 When death shall close our earthly songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
Oh thou, in whom we put our trust,
Receive us to thyself at last.

41 Initiation, or Raising.

1 Let us remember, in our youth,
Before the evil days draw nigh,
Our Great Creator and his Truth!
Ere memory fail, and pleasure fly;
Or sun, or moon, or planet's light
Grow dark, or clouds return in gloom;
Ere vital spark no more incite,
When strength shall bow, and years consume.

2 Let us in youth remember Him!
Who formed our frame, and spirits gave,
Ere windows of the mind grow dim,
Or door of speech obstructed wave;
When voice of bird fresh terrors wake,
And music's daughters charm no more,
Or fear to rise, with trembling shake,
Along the path we travel o'er.

in youth, to God let memory cling,
Before desire shall fail, or wane,
Or e'er be loosed life's silver string.
Or bowl at fountain rent in twain;
For man to his long home doth go,
And mourners group around his urn
Our dust to dust again must flow,
And spirits unto God return.

42 Hymn for Opening.

1 Master Supreme! accept our praise;
Still bless this consecrated band;
Parent of Light! illumine our ways,
And guide us by thy sovereign hand

2 May Faith, Hope, Charity, divine,
Here hold their undivided reign;
Friendship and Harmony combine
To soothe our cares, to banish pain.

3 May Pity dwell within each breast,
Relief attend the suffering poor;
Thousands by this, our Lodge, be blest,
Till worth, distress'd, shall want no more

43 Initiation.

1 Far from the world's cold strife and pride.
Come join our peaceful, happy band;
Come, stranger, we your feet will guide,
Where Truth and Love shall hold command.

2 Although in untried paths you tread,
And filled, perhaps, with anxious fear,
A brother's faithful hand shall lead,
Where doubt and darkness disappear.

3 Then may you in our labors join,
And prove yourself a brother true;
All sordid, selfish cares resign,
And keep our sacred truths in view.

44 Opening.

1 From North to South, from East to West
Advance the myriads of the blest;
From every clime of earth they come,
And find with us a common home.

2 In one immortal throng, we view
Pagan and Christian, Greek and Jew;
But all their doubt and darkness o'er,
One only God! they here adore.

45 Opening.

Oh! God of grace, before thy throne,
Thy suppliants bow, with holy fear;
Thou thou art pleased to call thine own
Invoke thy sacred presence here.

46 Closing.

1 Great God, to thee our closing song,
With humble gratitude we raise;
Oh let thy mercy tune our tongue,
And fill our hearts with lively praise.

2 Let Faith and Hope our eyelids close;
With sleep refresh our feeble frame;
Safe in thy care may we repose,
And wake with praises to thy name

49 Opening.

- Come, all ye gentle springs that move
And animate the human mind,
And by your energy improve
The social bond by which we're joined.
- 2 This happy lodge, of care devoid,
And haggard malice always free,
Shall by your aid be still employed
In social love and harmony

50 Opening.

No earthly power can now befriend,
Or aid you in this time of need.
- 2 Then put your trust in Him alone,
Who rules all things above, below
Send your petitions to his throne,
For he alone can help you now

52 Opening.

Away from every worldly care,
In this fraternal, loved retreat;
We leave this troubled world afar,
And wait and worship near thy seat.

1 Lord, in this temple of thy grace,
We feel thy presence, and adore,
We gaze upon thy lovely face,
And learn the wonders of thy power.

Here let our faith in Thee abide,
Forever firm thy justice stands;
Not all the powers of earth beside,
Can e'er dissolve the sacred bands.

53 Opening.

1 From busy scenes we now retreat,
To hold converse, O God, with thee;
While bowing low before Thy feet,
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.

2 Teach us to know and love thy way,
By thine unerring guidance led;
And grant, to life's remotest day,
Our willing feet thy paths may tread.

54 Masonic Hymn.—J. H. SHEPPARD.

1 Ah! when shall we three meet like them,
Who last were at Jerusalem?
For one lies low, alas! he's not,
The green Accacia marks the spot.

2 Though poor he was, with kings he trod;
Though great, he humbly knelt to God:
Ah! when shall hope restore again,
The broken link of friendship's chain.

3 Behold! where mourning beauty bent,
In silence o'er his monument,
And wildly spread, in sorrow there,
The ringlets of her flowing hair.

4 The future sons of grief shall sigh,
While standing round in mystic tie,
And raise their hands, Alas! to heaven,
In anguish that no hope is given.

1 From whence we come, or whither go,
Ask me no more, nor seek to know,
Till three shall meet, who formed like them,
The Grand Lodge of Jerusalem.

55 Opening. Master Mason.

1 Great God! wilt thou meet with us here
And bless us in our works of love?
Thy sacred name we all revere,
Oh! grant us blessings from above

2 May each be found a living stone,
For heavenly mansions, tried and squared;
When all our earthly sands are run,
The scythe of time find us prepared.

3 By the strong grip of Judah's king,
May we be raised to realms of peace;
There constant songs of praises sing,
In that Grand Lodge of endless bliss

56 Opening Encampment.

1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise.
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word:
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

57 Funeral.

1 Teach us, oh Lord, our days to sum,
That we to wisdom may incline;
What steps of life are yet to come,
What gloomy steps of pain and sin!

2 'Tis ours to know that we must die,
Oh teach us, Lord, how best to live;
Thy love with greater power display,
Thy grace in larger measure give.

3 One more we yield the ravening torch,
'Tis thy command, our Brother dies;
Once more the pall of funeral gloom,
Once more the tribute of our sighs.

4 Oh teach us, Lord, our days to sum,
That we to wisdom may incline;
What steps of life are yet to come,
What gloomy steps of pain and sin!

58 Dorology.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost

60 Hymn. For Various Occasions.

- 1 'Tis Masonry unites mankind,
To gen'rous actions forms the soul;
In friendly converse all conjoined,
One spirit animates the whole.
- 2 Where'er aspiring domes arise,
Wherever sacred altars stand;
Those altars blaze unto the skies,
Those domes proclaim the Mason's hand.
- 3 Sing, brethren, then, the craft we love;—
Best bond of social joy and mirth;—
Until we meet in Lodge above,
Proclaim its virtues o'er the earth.

61 Closing. Royal Arch.

- 1 O Lord, behold before thy throne,
A band of Brothers lowly bend,
Thy face we seek, thy Name we own,
And pray that thou wilt be our friend.
- 2 Great God! we come with filial fear,
To seek a blessing from thy throne,
Our supplications kindly hear,
Our humble songs be pleased to own.

62 Opening.

- 1 To Thee, O God! to Thee we bring
The evening's grateful offering;
From thee, the source of joy above,
Flow everlasting streams of love.
- 2 Grant us, we pray, a willing mind,
And how we may thy favor find;
How learn what thou would'st have us do
And love and serve each other too.
- 3 Forgive our sins; our follies hide;
On earth our wandering footsteps guide;
Subdue our hearts, thy name to love,
And bring us to thy courts above.

63 Opening.

- 1 Here, gracious God, behold a few,
Who would observe thy holy Word
O, may we find thy promise true,
That they shall live who fear the Lord
- 2 While thus in peace we close the day
To every faithful soul be near;
And may we all rejoicing say
'Twas good for us to gather here

64 Ode for Installation.

- 1 I s. Masons ever live in love;
 I.e. harmony their blessings prove;
 And be the sacred Lodge the place,
 Where freedom smiles in every face.
- 2 Behold the world all in amaze,
 Each curious eye with transport gaze;
 They look, they like, they wish to be,
 What none can gain, except he's free.
- 3 Let Masons then, with watchful eye,
 Regard the works of Charity;
 Let Union, Love, and Friendship meet,
 And show that Wisdom's ways are sweet.

65 Ode for Dedication.

- Almighty Father! God of Love!
 Sacred, eternal King of kings!
 From thy celestial courts above,
 Send beams of grace on seraph's wings.
 O, may they, gilt with light divine,
 Shed on our hearts inspiring rays;
 While bending at this sacred shrine,
 We offer mystic songs of praise
- 4 F. t. a. with divine and heavenward eye,
 Looking to radiant realms of bliss,
 Shed here thy sweet benignity,
 And crown our works with happiness;
 Lo! too, with bosom void of fear,
 Still on thy steadfast anchor lean,
 Shed thy balmy influence here,
 And fill our breasts with joy serene.
- And thou fair Charity! whose smile
 Can bid the heart forget its woe,
 Whose hand can misery's care beguile,
 And kindness' sweetest boon bestow,
 Here shed thy sweet, soul-soothing ray;
 Soften our hearts, thou Power divine!
 Bid the warm gem of pity play,
 With sparkling lustre, on our shrine.

Thou, who art throned 'midst dazzling light,
 And wrapped in brilliant robes of gold,
 Whose flowing locks of silvery white
 Thy age and honor both unfold:—
 Genius of Masonry! descend,
 And guide our steps by thy strict law;
 O, swiftly to our temple bend,
 And fill our breasts with solemn awe.

66 Sweet is the Memory.

- 1 Sweet is the memory of the night
 When first we saw the secret light;
 Dear to our souls shall ever be
 The mysteries of Masonry.
- 2 Grateful to thee our hearts we bend,
 O Masonry, thou poor man's friend;
 Dark though the streams of life may flow
 That still it rolls to thee we owe.
- 3 O, we have tried thee, tried thee long,
 When hope had fled, when hope was strong
 Brighter than all our fancy dreamed,
 Thy true, unfading love has beamed.
- 4 Science may shoot its bright cold ray
 Across the pilgrim's painful way;
 Honor may plant the laurel there,
 For fortune to usurp and wear:
- 5 But vain their power to warm, O Art,
 The chill, that settles round the heart;
 Thou canst alone beguile the hours,
 And strew our rugged way with flowers
- 67 Knight Templar.
- 1 Rest, holy pilgrim, rest, I pray,
 Dreary to Mecca's shrine thy way;
 O deign an hermit's hut to share,
 Nor proudly spurn his homely fare.
- 2 But say from whence thy sorrows flow
 Impart each secret source of woe;
 For time, I see, and grief have spread
 A silver halo o'er thy head.
- 3 No ruffian lawless steps intrude
 To blast the joys of solitude;
 But peace and meditation dwell,
 Sweet inmates of the hermit's cell.
- 4 To quench thy thirst the rock shall flow
 To feed thee sweetest fruits shall grow;
 Soft dreams shall nature's waste repair
 Then deign an hermit's hut to share

68 Royal Arch. Opening.

- 1 With all my powers of heart and tongue
 I'll praise my Maker in my song,
 Angels shall hear the notes I raise,
 Approve the song, and join the praise
- 2 I'll sing thy Truth, and Mercy, Lord;
 I'll sing the wonders of thy Word;
 Not all the works and Names below,
 So much thy power and glory show

Why should we fear this parting pain;
We die that we may live again.

Super Excellent Master.

1 When we, our wearied limbs to rest,
Sat down by proud Euphrates stream,
We wept, with doleful thoughts oppress'd,
And Zion was our mournful theme.

2 Our harps, that, when with joy we sung,
Were wont their tuneful parts to bear,
With silent strings, neglected hung,
On willow trees that withered there.

3 How shall we tune our voice to sing,
Or touch our harps with skillful hands
Shall hymns of joy, to God our King,
Be sung by slaves in foreign lands?

4 O Salem, our once happy seat!
When I of thee forgetful prove,
Then let my trembling hand forget
The tuneful strings with art to move

5 If I to mention thee forbear
Eternal silence seize my tongue;
Or if I sing one cheerful air,
Till thy deliverance is my song.

OPENING, OR INITIATION.

HEBRON. L. M.
1st.

From "Carmina Sacra," by permission

1. Supreme Grand Master! God of pow'r! Be with us in this solemn hour

2. Let each discordant tho't be gone, And love unite our hearts in one;

Smile on our work; our plans approve; Fill every heart with hope and love.

May we, in union strong, combine In work and worship so divine.

80

Masonic Hymn.

- 1 Grant us, kind Heaven! what we request;
In Masonry let us be blest:
Direct us to that happy place,
Where friendship smiles on every face:
- 2 Where scepter'd Reason, from her throne,
Surveys the Lodge, and makes us one;
And Harmony's delightful sway,
Forever sheds ambrosial day.
- 3 No prying eye can view us here,
No fool or knave disturb our cheer;
Our well-formed laws set mankind free,
And give relief to misery.
- 4 Our Lodge the social Virtues grace,
And Wisdom's rules we fondly trace;
While Nature, open to our view,
Points out the paths we should pursue.

81

Charity.

Offspring of heaven, mankind's best friend,
Bright Charity, inspire our lay;
On these terrestrial shores descend,
And quit the realms of cloudless day.

Come, then, all bounteous as thou art,
And hide thee from our sight no more;
Touch every soul, expand each heart,
That breathes on freedom's chosen shore.

82

Relief.

- 1 Blest is the man whose tender care,
Relieves the poor in their distress;
Whose pity wipes the widow's tear,
Whose hand supports the fatherless.
- 2 His heart contrives, for their relief,
More than his willing hands can do—
He, in the time of wasting grief,
Shall find the Lord his pity too.
- 3 His soul shall live secure on earth,
With secret blessings on his head;
When drouth, and pestilence, and dearth
Around him multiply their dead.
- 4 Or, if he languish on his couch,
God will pronounce his sins forgiven;
Will save him with a healing touch,
Or take his willing soul to heaven.

Closing.

- 1 Spirit of peace, all meek and mild,
Inspire our hearts, our souls possess,
Repel each passion, rude and wild,
And bless us as we aim to bless.

- 2 Hear, now, the parting prayer we pour
And bind our hearts in love alone;
Though we may meet on earth no more,
May we at last surround thy throne.

- To the Knight Templar's awful dome,
Where glorious knights in arms are drest,
Filled with surprise, I slowly come,
With solemn jewels on my breast.
- A pilgrim to this house I came,
With sandal, staff, and scrip so white;
Through rugged paths my feet were led;
All this I bore to be a Knight.
- With feeble arm I gently smote,
At the Knight Templar's mercy gate;
What I beheld, when it was op'ed,
Was splendid, elegant, and great.
- Twelve dazzling lights I quickly saw,
All chosen for the cross to fight;
In one of them I found a flaw,
And speedily put out that light.
- Unite your hearts, and join your hands
In every solemn tie of love;
United, each firm Templar stands
The virtue of his cause to prove.
- Until the world is lost in fire,
By order of the Trinity,
The amazing world shall still admire
Our steadfast love and unity.

85 Hymn for Consecration.

- Master Supreme! accept our praise;
Still bless this consecrated band;
Parent of Light! illumine our ways,
And guide us by thy sovereign hand.
- May Faith, Hope, Charity, divine,
Here hold their undivided reign;
Friendship and Harmony combine
To soothe our cares, and banish pain.
- May Wisdom here disciples find,
Beauty unfold her thousand charms;
Science invigorate the mind,
Expand the soul, that virtue warms.
- May Pity dwell within each breast,
Relief attend the suffering poor;
Thousands by this, our Lodge, be blest,
Till worth, distress, shall want no more.

Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

87 Royal Arch.

- Almighty Father! heavenly King!
Before whose sacred Name we bow,
Accept the praises which we sing
And to our humble prayer attend.
- Thou, who did'st Persia's king command
A proclamation to extend,
That Israel's host might quit his land,
Their holy Temple to attend;
- All hail! great Architect divine!
Let heaven's eternal arches ring!
This universal frame is thine;
All hail! thou great, Eternal King!

88 Opening.

- Ye happy few, who here extend
In peaceful lines, from east to west,
With fervent zeal the Lodge defend,
And lock its secrets in your breast.
- Since ye are met upon the Square,
Bid love and Friendship jointly reign
Be peace and Harmony your care,
They form an adamant chain.

89 Anniversary Ode.

- Hail! sacred art! by Heaven designed
A gracious blessing for mankind;
Peace, joy, and love, thou dost bestow,
On us thy votaries below.
- Bright wisdom's footsteps here we trace
From Solomon, the prince of peace,
Whose righteous maxims still we hold
More precious than rich Ophir's gold.
- His heavenly proverbs to us tell,
How we on earth should ever dwell,
In harmony and social love,
To emulate the blest above.
- Now, having Wisdom for our guide,
By its sweet precepts we'll abide;
Nor from its path will ever stray,
Till all shall meet in endless day.
- Vain, empty grandeur shall not find
Its dwelling in a Brother's mind;
A Mason, who is true and wise,
Its glittering pomp will e'er despise.
- Candor and friendship, joy and peace
Within his breast shall have a place,
Virtue and Wisdom thus combined
Shall decorate the Mason's mind.

91 Funeral Hymn.

- 1 Here let the sacred rites succeed
In honor of departed friends;
With solemn order now proceed,
While living faith with sorrow blends.
 - 2 Now let the hymn—the humble prayer,
From hearts sincere, ascend on high;
And mystic evergreen declare,
That Hope within us cannot die.
 - 3 The mortal frame may be concealed
Within the narrow house of gloom;
But God, in mercy, has revealed
Immortal life beyond the tomb.
- The friends we mourn we still may love;
Then let our aspirations rise,
To that bright spirit-world above,
Where virtue lives, love never dies.

- 1 Blest is the man who stands in awe
Of God, and loves his sacred law;
His seed on earth shall be renowned,
And with successive honors crowned.
- 2 Beset with threat'ning dangers round,
Unmolested shall he maintain his ground;
The sweet remembrance of the just
Shall flourish, when he sleeps in dust.

93 Installation Ode.

- 1 Come all ye gentle springs, that move
And animate the human mind,
And by your energy improve
The social bond by which we're joined
- 2 This happy Lodge, of care devoid,
And haggard malice always free,
Shall by your aid be still employed
In social love and harmony.
- 3 Oh! let each heart with rapture glow;
Be every nerve with rapture strung;
May Love from every bosom flow,
And kindly words from every tongue.

94 Opening. Red Cross.

- 1 "Let there be Light"—the first command
That burst from heaven's exalted throne
Jehovah gave the stern decree,
And forth immediate radiance shone.
- 2 But there's a light, a brighter light,
Than sun or nature e'er could claim;
'Tis shed through all creation's space,
And bears a great and glorious name.
- 3 Then let us search for this great Light.
Which shines with such refulgence broad
Its name is Truth; and that alone
Can bring our wandering souls to God

95 Knight Templar.

The rising God forsakes the tomb;
Up to his Father's court he flies;
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.

1 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great deliverer reigns;
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
And led the monster, Death, in chains.

2 Say, "live forever glorious King,
Born to instruct, redeem, and save;"
Then ask—"O Death! where is thy sting?"
"And where's thy victory?" boasting grave!

96 Master Mason.

1 Death, like an ever-flowing stream,
Sweeps us away—our life's a dream—
An empty tale—a morning flower—
Cut down and withered in an hour.

2 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man;
And kindly lengthen out our span,
Till, cleansed by grace, we all may be Prepared to die, and dwell with thee.

97 Opening.

1 O Thou who see'st the sparrow's fall,
And hear'st the raven's feeble cry,
Whose tender care extends to all,
To thee we raise the prayerful eye.

2 Father! while we as brothers meet,
With Truth and Love our bosoms fill,
And 'till we reach our heavenly seat,
Help us to know and do thy will.

98 Closing.

1 Father, once more let grateful praise
And humble prayer to thee ascend;
Thou Guide and Guardian of our ways,
Our first and last, and only Friend.

2 Hear, then, the parting prayers we pour,
And bind our hearts in love alone;
Though we may meet on earth no more,
May all at last surround thy throne.

99 Masonic Hymn.

1 From East to West, o'er land and sea,
Where brothers meet and friends agree,
Let incense rise from hearts sincere,
The dearest offering gathered here.

Our trust reposed on God alone,
Who ne'er will contrite hearts disown;
Our faith shall mark that holy light,
Whose beams our dearest joys unite

100 Royal Arch Hymn.—F. G. TISDALL.

1 There is a word, no mortal tongue
May dare its mystic sounds combine;
Nor saint hath breathed, nor prophet sung
That holiest of the names divine!

2 Nor may the fingers of the Scribe
Presume that hallowed word to write;
Accursed alike, from Israel's tribe,
Were he who dared that word indite!

3 Yet though nor lips, nor pen, may dare
That name unspeakable impart;
'Tis ever breathed in Masons' prayer,
'Tis ever written in his heart.

101 Opening Hymn.

1 How blest the sacred tie, that binds
In sweet communion kindred minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes
are one.

2 Together oft they seek the place
Where Friendship smiles on every face.
How high, how strong their raptures swell
There's none but kindred souls can tell.

3 Nor shall the glowing flame expire,
When dimly burns frail nature's fire:
Then shall they meet in realms above—
A heaven of joy—a heaven of love.

102 Closing.

1 We offer, Lord, a humble prayer,
And thank thee for thy grace bestowed,
For leading us beneath thy care
Us far in wisdom's pleasant road.

2 What ~~to~~ to our lot may fall,—
What ~~some~~ duties to fulfil,—
We do not know; but in them all,
Be thou our strength and comfort still!

3 Be thou, O God, our constant friend—
Our hope, our comfort, and our stay;
And may thy Spirit, Lord, descend,
To bless and guide us day by day.

103 Opening.

1 O Thou! at whose great Name we bend,
To whom our warmest vows we pay,
God over all! in love descend,
And bless the labors of this day

2 Here, still, through all succeeding time,
May Truth and Love its tribute bring,
And still the anthem-note sublime,
To Thee from children's children ring

107 Dramatic Song.—GEO. P. MORRIS.

- Our Order, like the Ark of Yore,
Up on the raging seas was tost;
Secure amid the billows' roar
I moved, and nothing has been lost.
When elements discordant seek
To wreck what God in mercy saves,
The struggle is as vain and weak
As that of the retiring waves.
- 2 The power who bade the waters cease,—
The pilot of the pilgrim band,—
He gave the gentle dove of peace,
The branch she bore them from the land.
In Him above we put our trust,
With heart and voice, with one accord,
Ascribing with the true and just,
All "Holiness unto the Lord."

108 Dedication of Masonic Hall.

(BRO. T. J. GREENWOOD, OF DOVER, N. H.)

- 1 "The Groves were God's first Temples," made
That man might early learn to praise,
And bowing in the sylvan shade,
To Thee, O God, his homage raise.
But Light advanced! New Temples sprung
Beneath the craftsman's skilful hand,
That grateful love might find a tongue
Where Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty stand.
- 2 Yet not where Sabbath bells alone
Invite the soul, our God we find,
But where ingenious toil is known,
He deigns to bless th' expanding mind.
This Fane, oh God! our hands have rear'd,
To aid us in our work of love;
And while we've toiled, Thy smile hath cheered,
Approving from Thy Throne above.
- 3 We own Thy Light! we plead Thy grace,
To crown our labors day by day,
That this may be a hallowed place,
To speed us on our pilgrim way.
Oh let us wear the triple crown
Of Faith, Hope, Charity divine,
That Thou our humble gift will own,
While Glory, Honor, Praise are Thine.

109

Opening.

Kind Father, God of love and power,
Be with us at this quiet hour!
Smile on our souls; our plans approve;
Help us to live in peace and love.
Let each discordant thought be gone,
And love unite our hearts in one;
Like brothers true, may we combine
To forward objects so divine.

[3*]

110

Opening.

- 1 Great God, behold before thy throne,
A band of brothers lowly bend;
Thy sacred Name we humbly own,
And pray that thou wilt be our friend
A band of brothers may we live,
A band of brothers may we die;
To each may God, our Father, give
A home of peace above the sky.

111

Opening.

- 1 Here, gracious God, beneath thy feet
Again we mystic brothers meet,
Joined by the cord of mutual love,
Bound to our common Friend above
May Wisdom, Zeal, and Love, inspire
Our bosoms with their purest fire;
While Faith on thine own word relies,
And Hope looks joyful to the skies.
- 2 Grant us thy presence, God of grace,
Now while we meet before thy face,
That we may feel, ere we depart,
Thy love diffused through every heart
May Wisdom, Zeal, and Love, inspire
Our bosoms with their purest fire;
While Faith on thine own word relies
And Hope looks joyful to the skies.

112

Closing.

- 1 As from this place we go once more,
Thy blessing, Father, we implore;
Still may we keep the heavenly way,
And strive to serve thee day by day.
And 'till again we gather here,
Help us to labor in thy fear;
Thy Truth impart, thy love distil,
That we may know and do thy will.

Song.—JAMES B. TAYLOR, K. T.

Air—"Shells of Ocean."

- 1 In pensive mood, at close of day,
I seek the peaceful, calm retreat,
Where Truth and Innocence repay
Those brethren dear in Lodge that meet
The precepts taught by Masons' Art,
To guide and guard our course through life,
Are grateful to the Virtuous heart,
Suppressing hate—subduing strife.
- 2 Where brethren meet in solemn form,
Devoted to the Master's will,
To shield from want, or gathering store
Their every duty to fulfil:—
In mystic rites we there engage,
And lessons pure and holy learn,
From the unerring, sacred page,
Where Love and Heavenly Truth burn.

115 Opening Song.—t. W. CHASE.

Come, Brothers of the plumb and square,
 Come, join in cheerful song;
 Let every heart and voice prepare
 The glad notes to prolong.
 We're Brothers, by a mystic tie,
 We're Brothers true and Free,
 Then let the song ascend on high,—
 God speed Freemasonry.

2 In Love we meet, in peace we part;
 We walk by plummet's line;
 While Friendship dwells within each heart
 That owns the craft Divine.
 'Mid all the toils and cares of earth,
 We steady keep our way;
 With Faith, and Hope, we wait the birth
 Of an Eternal day.

116 Closing Song.

1 We meet in love, we part in peace,
 Our council labors o'er;
 We'll ask, ere life's best days shall cease,
 To meet in time once more.

CHORUS.

'Mid fairest scenes to memory dear,
 In change of joy and pain;
 We'll think of friends assembled here,
 And hope to meet again.

2 Though changes mark time's onward way
 In all we fondly claim,
 Fraternal hopes shall ne'er decay—
 Our landmarks still the same.

CHORUS.

'Mid fairest scenes to memory dear,
 In change of joy and pain;
 We'll think of friends assembled here,
 And hope to meet again.

1 Our Faith unmoved, with Truth our guide,
 As seasons mark our clime;
 Through winter's chill, or summer's pride,
 We'll hail the Art Sublime.

CHORUS.

'Mid fairest scenes to memory dear,
 In change of joy and pain;
 We'll think of friends assembled here,
 And hope to meet again.

When life shall find its silent close,
 With Hope's kind promise blest;
 In that Grand Lodge may all repose,
 Where joys immortal rest.

CHORUS.

'Mid fairest scenes to memory dear,
 In change of joy and pain;
 We'll think of friends assembled here,
 And hope to meet again.

117 Friendship

1 Old friends shall never be forgot,
 Whose love was love sincere;
 And still, whatever be their lot,
 We'll make them welcome here.
 The kindness they have often shown,
 We long have borne in mind,
 And long, we hope, our friends have know.
 A welcome where to find.

2 It never shall be said, with truth,
 That now our hearts are cold;
 The friends who loved us in our youth,
 We'll love when they are old.
 And if in ills, which we withstand,
 They kind assistance need,
 We'll stretch them forth a helping hand,
 And be a friend indeed.

118 Closing.

1 Now we must close our labors here,
 Though sad it is to part;
 May Love, Relief, and Truth sincere,
 Unite each brother's heart.
 Now to our homes let's haste away,
 Still filled with love and light;
 And may each heart in kindness say,
 Good night, brother, good night.

119 Initiation, or Crafting.

1 O welcome, brother, to our band,
 Though strong its numbers now,
 And high its lofty pillars stand,
 And noble arches bow.
 Oh welcome—if thy heart be true,
 Thou'lt find with us a home;
 We're daily adding columns new
 Unto our glorious dome.

2 Now let our ardent prayers arise,
 For blessings on his brow,
 And bear our offering to the skies,
 For him who joins us now.
 Oh welcome—if thy heart be true,
 Thou'lt find with us a home;
 We're daily adding columns new
 Unto our glorious dome.

120 Closing.

1 Great Architect of Earth and Heaven,
 By time nor space confined,
 Enlarge our love to comprehend
 Our brethren, all mankind.
 With Faith our guide, and humble Hope,
 Warm Charity and Love,
 May all at last be raised to share
 Thy perfect light above.

Into temptation lead us not,
But us from evil save.

Thine from eternity they were,
And thine shall ever be.

How soft the sounds upon it borne,

Each anxious care that mars our peace,
In Faith and Love be hushed.

129

Opening, or Initiation.

- 1 Behold! how pleasant and how good,
For brethren such as we,
Of the accepted brotherhood,
To dwell in unity:
- 2 'Tis like the oil on Aaron's head,
Which to his feet distils;
Like Hermon's dew, so richly shed
On Zion's sacred hills.

A blessing sent with power:
Oh! may we all this blessing prove,
E'er life forevermore.
- 4 On Friendship's altar rising here,
Our hands now plighted be,
To live in love, with hearts sincere,
In peace and unity.

- 1 Hail Masonry! thou sacred art
Of origin divine!
Kind partner of each social heart,
And favorite of the Nine!
- 2 By thee we're taught our acts to square,
To measure life's short span;
And each infirmity to bear
That's incident to man.
- 3 Tho' envy's tongue would blast thy fame
And simple ignorance sneer,
Yet still thy ancient, honored name,
To each true brother's dear:
- 4 Then strike the blow, to charge prepare,
In this we all agree,—
May freedom be each Mason's care
And every Mason free.

132

Opening.

- 1 Within our temple, met again,
With hearts and purpose strong,
We'll raise our notes of grateful praise,
With union in our song.
- 2 Around our altar's sacred shrine,
May Love's pure incense rise,
Bearing upon its mystic flame
Our music to the skies.

Dedication.

- 1 Whilst science yields a thousand lights
To irradiate the mind,
Let us that noblest art pursue,
Which dignifies mankind.
- 2 The pompous dome, the gorgeous hall,
The temple's cloud-capt tower,
The Masons' glory shall proclaim
Till times remotest hour.
- 3 Ideal fabrics to uprear,
Some men think all our art;
But little think what plans we draw
To form an upright heart.
- 4 Our plumb we poise, and clear each clog
That hangs about the string;
And each unruly passion's flight,
Within due compass bring.
- 5 The Good Samaritan we prove
To all, and everywhere;
Upon the level here we meet,
And pace upon the square.
- 6 Upon this rock we'll stand when worlds
To oblivion all shall tend;
Our brethren as ourselves we love
To all mankind a friend

Whose cheerful hearts in bands unite,
Of harmony and love!
- 'Tis pleasant as the morning dews
That fall on Zion's hill,
Where God his radiant glory shows,
And makes his grace distil.

141 Opening.

- Oh, influence sweet, from spheres above
This rude and selfish life,
Descend and dwell with us in love,
Dispelling scenes of strife.
- Let darkness spread no more its wings
With passion's brooding powers,
Where love and wisdom e'er should reign
In this retreat of ours.
- Oh, influence sweet, from spheres above,
Surround, and make us good,
And ever let us feel we have A loving Brotherhood.

142 Mark Master.

- How sweet, how calm this Sabbath morn,
How pure the air that breathes,
And soft the sounds upon it borne,
And light its vapor wreaths!
- Let each unholy passion cease,
Each evil thought be crushed,
Each anxious care that mars our peace
In Faith and Love be hushed.

143 Fellow Craft. Work.

- O welcome, brother, to our band,
Though strong its numbers now,
And high its lofty pillars stand,
And noble arches bow.
- O welcome—if thy heart be true,
Thou'lt find with us a home;
We're daily adding columns new
Unto our glorious dome.
- Now let our heartfelt prayers arise,
For blessings on his brow,
And bear our offering to the skies,
For him who joins us now.

144 Master Mason. Opening.

- Come, Masters of the Art, unite,
And may this meeting prove,
To all th' assembled sons of light,
A strengthened bond of love.
- May Friendship and Morality,
With true fraternal love,
Be found in every Mason's heart,
And all his actions move.

145 Opening, or Closing.

- To thee we look, thou Power supreme
Thou wilt our wants supply!
Safe in thy presence shall we live,
And in thy favor die.
- From thee our vital breath we drew:
Our childhood was thy care;
And vigorous youth and feeble age
Thy kind protection share.
- Then be it ours, through gentle deeds
Of pure and perfect love,
To sow in human hearts the seeds
Of flowers that bloom above.

146 Opening, or Closing.

- Sweet as the dew on herb and flower
That silently distils,
At evening's soft and balmy hour,
On Zion's fruitful hills.
- So, with mild influence from above,
Shall promised grace descend;
Till universal peace and love
O'er all the earth extend

2d. Our harps on droop - ing wil - lows sleep; Our hearts are fill'd with woe.

147 Super Excellent Master.

- 1 By Babel's streams we sit and weep;
Our tears for Zion flow;
Our harps on drooping willows sleep;
Our hearts are filled with woe.
(SQUARE.)
- 2 Our walls no more resound with praise;
Our Temple, foes destroy;
Judea's courts no more upraise
Triumphant songs of joy.
(TRIANGLE.)
- 3 Here, mourning, toiling, captive bands,
Our feasts and Sabbaths cease;
Our tribes dispersed through distant lands,
And hopeless of release.
(CIRCLE.)
- 4 But should the ever-gracious Power,
To us propitious be;
Chaldeans shall our race restore,
And Kings proclaim us free!

148 Closing. Royal Arch.

- 1 Great God! our King! to thee we raise
Our voice and all our powers;
Unwearied songs of grateful praise
Shall fill the circling hour.

- 2 Thy Name shall dwell upon our tongue
While suns shall set and rise,
And tune our everlasting song
When time and nature dies.

149 Anniversary Hymn.

- 1 To Him who rules, be homage paid,
Where hearts with voice unite;
To him we bring fraternal aid,
Who guides in solemn rite.
- 2 Come, Brothers, bound by kindly ties,
Your notes harmonious bring;
While acts of generous sacrifice,
In thoughts of love we sing.
- 3 As days and years roll silent by —
As Time's sad changes rise,
No doubt shall dim the trusting eye,
Where rule the good and wise.
- 4 To Him who rules, be homage paid,
Where hearts with voice unite;
Till life shall cease, and time shall fade
We'll bring our solemn plight.

150 Eucanpment.

How glorious is the gift of Faith,
That cheers the darksome tomb,
And through the damp and gloomy grave,
Can shed a rich perfume!

Triumphant Faith! it lifts the soul
Above desponding fear;
Exults in hope of heaven, her home,
And longs to enter there!

151 Funeral Hymn.

1 Another hand is beckoning us,
Another call is given;
And glows once more, with angel steps,
The path that leads to heaven.

2 Dust, to its narrow house beneath!
Soul, to its place on high!
They that have seen thy look in death,
No more may fear to die.

3 Lone are the paths, and sad the bowers,
Whence thy meek smile is gone;
But, oh! a brighter home than ours,
In heaven, is now thine own.

152 Master Mason.

1 The Lord unto thy prayer attend,
In trouble's darksome hour:
The name of Jacob's God defend,
And shield thee by his power.

2 Should friends and kindred, near and dear,
Leave thee to want, or die,
May Heaven make thy life its care,
And all thy need supply.

153 Funeral Hymn

1 A- distant lands beyond the sea,
When friends go thence, draw nigh;
So heaven, when friends have thither gone,
Draws nearer from the sky.

2 And as those lands the dearer grow,
When friends are long away,
So heaven: itself, through loved ones dead,
Grows dearer day by day.

3 Heaven is not far from those who see
With the pure spirit's sight,
But near, and in the very hearts
Of those who see aright.

154 Master Mason.

1 Few are thy days, and full of wo
O man, of woman born!
Thy doom is written, "Dust thou art,
And shalt to dust return."

2 Determined are the days that fly
Successive o'er thy head;
The numbered hour is on the win
Which lays thee with the dead.

155 Opening.

1 Father of all! in every age,
In every clime adored,
By saint, by savage, or by sage,
The universal Lord.

2 To thee, whose temple is all space
Whose altar, earth, sea, skies,
One chorus let all beings raise,
All nature's incense rise

156 Master Mason.

1 Teach me the measure of my days
Thou maker of my frame;
I would survey life's narrow space
And learn how frail I am.

2 A span is all that we can boast,
How short the fleeting time!
Man is but vanity and dust,
In all his flower and prime.

1 All hail! the great mysterious Art
Grand offering from above—
Which fondly twines each gential heart
In harmony and love.

2 Come, Brothers, join the festive board
Awake the tuneful lay;
Unite in Friendship, Peace, and Love;
'Tis Masons' holyday.

3 Come, bring the wreath, the trio bind
Faith, Charity, and Love,
To great St. John a splendid star
In the Grand Lodge above.

4 With fervent Zeal and pure delight,
We'll wake the joyful strain,
Till in the great Grand Lodge we meet
Where joys immortal reign.

Royal Arch.

When orient Wisdom beamed serene,
And pillar'd Strength arose;
When Beauty tinged the glowing scene,
And Faith her mansion chose;

Exulting hands the fabric viewed,
Mysterious powers adored;
And high the Triple Union stood,
That gave the Mystic Word.

2 Pale Envy withered at the sight,
And, frowning at the pile,
Called Murder from the realms of night,
To blast the glorious toil;

4 With ruffian outrage, joined in woe,
They form the league abhorred,
And wounded Science felt the blow
That crushed the Mystic Word.

5 At length through time's expanded sphere,
Fair Science spreads her way,
And warmed by Truth's refulgence clear,
Reflects the kindred ray;

6 A second fabric's towering height
Proclaims the sign restored,
From whose foundation, brought to light,
Is drawn the Mystic Word.

Opening.

Within our temple, met again,
With hearts and purpose strong,
We'll raise our notes of grateful praise,
With union in our song.

May Love's pure incense rise,
Bearing upon its mystic flame
Our music to the skies.

God, the Creator.

Eternal Wisdom, thee we praise,
Thee all thy creatures sing;
While with thy name, rocks, hills, and seas,
And heaven's high arches ring.

Our souls with vast amazement fill,
And speak the Builder — God.

Char.

1 O Charity! thou heavenly grace,
All tender, soft and kind;
A friend to all the human race,
To all that's good and kind.

2 The man of charity extends
To all his liberal hand;
His kindred, neighbors, foes and friends
His pity may command.

3 He aids the poor in their distress —
He hears when they complain;
With tender heart delights to bless,
And lessen all their pain.

4 The sick, the prisoner, poor and blind,
And all the sons of grief,
In him a benefactor find;
He loves to give relief.

5 Oh! may we all in love abound,
And Charity pursue;
Thus shall we be with glory crowned,
And love as angels do.

The Good Samaritan.

1 Blest is the man whose generous heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Is never raised in vain; —

2 Whose breast expands with gen'rous warmth,
A brother's woes to feel,
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.

3 He spreads his kind supporting arms
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

4 To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow;
He views, through Mercy's resting eye,
A Brother in a foe.

5 To him protection shall be shown;
And mercy from above
Descend on those, who thus fulfil
The perfect law of love

Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine
To guide our souls to heaven.

In this dark vale of tears,
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

Of life, shall guide our way;

Like Hermon's dew, so richly shed
On Zion's sacred hills.

Oh, may we all this blessing prove

Who much of good would yet have done
And late return to heaven.

Alas! it set at noon;
His Master must have loved him much,
To call him home so soon.

We'll pass his dwelling by;
We mourn the shortness of his years,
And bless his memory.

1 Come great and small, come old and young,
 Come all ye Accepted Free;
 Come every nation, every tongue,
 And sing of Masonry.
 Let Jew nor Gentile e'er forget
 Our honors they may claim;
 We're Brothers, on the level met,
 Whate'er our land or name.
 Then let us join, &c.

2 Let trusting Faith, and holy Hope,
 And heaven-born Charity,
 In every heart have largest scope,
 And shine for Masonry:
 Let Justice circle, Virtue square;
 Let Friendship guide our feet,
 So that at last, like jewels rare,
 We all in heaven may meet.
 Then let us join, &c.

184 Opening Song.—G. W. CHASE.

Come, Brothers of the plumb and square,
 Come, join in cheerful song;
 Let every heart and voice prepare
 The glad notes to prolong.
 We're Brothers, by a mystic tie,
 We're Brothers true and Free,
 Then let the song ascend on high,—
 God speed Freemasonry.
 Then, Brothers of the plumb, &c.

• In Love we meet, in peace we part;
 We walk by plummet's line;
 While Friendship dwells within each heart
 That owns the craft Divine.
 Mid all the toils and cares of earth,
 We steady keep our way;
 With Faith, and Hope, we wait the birth
 Of an Eternal day.
 Then, Brothers of the plumb, &c.

1 We met in love, we part in peace,
 Our council labors o'er;
 We'll ask, ere life's best days shall cease,
 To meet in time once more.
 'Mid fairest scenes to memory dear,
 In change of joy and pain;
 We'll think of friends assembled here,
 And hope to meet again.
 We met in love, &c.

2 Though changes mark time's onward way
 In all we fondly claim,
 Fraternal hopes shall ne'er decay —
 Our landmarks still the same.
 Our Faith unmoved, with Truth our guide,
 As seasons mark our clime;
 Through winter's chill, or summer's pride,
 We'll hail the Art Sublime.
 We met in love, &c.

186 Song of the World.

1 This world is not so bad a world
 As some would like to make it;
 Though whether good, or whether bad,
 Depends on how you take it;
 For if we scold and fret all day,
 From dewy morn till even,
 This world will ne'er afford to man
 A foretaste here of heaven.
 This world is not, &c.

2 This world in truth's as good a world,
 As e'er was known to any
 Who have not seen another yet,
 And there are very many;
 And if the men, and women too,
 Have plenty of employment,
 They surely must be hard to please,
 Who cannot find enjoyment.
 This world is not, &c.

3 This world is quite a pleasant world,
 In rain or pleasant weather;
 If people would but learn to live
 In harmony together;
 And cease to burst the kindling bond,
 By love and peace cemented,
 And learn that best of lessons yet,
 To always be contented.
 This world is not, &c.

4 Then were this world a pleasant world
 And pleasant folks were in it,
 The day would pass most pleasantly,
 To those who thus begin it;
 And all the nameless grievances
 Brought on by borrowed troubles,
 Would prove, as certainly they are,
 A mass of empty bubbles.
 This world is not, &c.

1 Let Masonry, from pole to pole,
 Her sacred laws expand;
 Far as the mighty waters roll,
 To wash remotest land;
 That virtue has not left mankind,
 Her social maxims prove;
 For stamped upon the Mason's mind,

 Let Masonry, &c.

2 Ascending to her native sky,
 Let Masonry increase;
 A glorious pillar raised on high,
 Integrity its base.
 Peace adds to olive boughs entwined
 An emblematic dove,
 As stamped upon the Mason's mind
 Is unity and love.

189 Song for the twenty-fourth of June.

(BRO. C. MOORE, ED. OF MASONIC REVIEW.)

- 1 All hail! the twenty-fourth of June,
Another year has flown,
And on our altar glimmers yet
The Light which long has shone.
Our brethren! ye are welcome here—
A truthful—noble band;
We're one in mystic bonds to-day,
We're one in heart and hand.
- 2 On this, another festive day,
We meet as oft of yore,
And tell of mystic labors done
On mountain, vale, and shore:
Of future work we yet may do,
Ere we are gathered home,
To hear from our Great Master's lips
The welcome words—"well done."
- 3 How sad the thought on memory's page,
That some who once were here,
Have no place now but in our hearts—
They've reached a higher sphere:
But Hope points on to future years,
When, all our works complete,
The true, and tried, and loved of earth,
Together all shall meet.
- 4 Then hail the twenty-fourth of June!
Its memories all are dear;
And oft on festive days like this,
Through many a passing year,
We'll meet and grasp each other's hands,
Ere yet our work is done,
And, round our altars, closer draw
The bonds which make us one.

190 Brotherly Love.

- 1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those that love the Lord,
In one another's peace delight,
And thus fulfil his word!
When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart.
- 2 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love!
Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of heaven that finds
His bosom glow with love.

191 The American Freemason

BY BRO. ROB. MORRIS.

- 1 Oh what a goodly heritage
The Lord to us hath given!
How blest the Brothers here that pledge
Their Mason vows to heaven!
I sing the mystic chain that binds
These Western realms in one,—
Such loving hearts, such liberal minds,
No other land has known.
- 2 Four thousand Lights, in Mason's halls
Are gleaming on our eyes;
Four thousand emblems on our walls
Tell whence that gleaming is;
And when the portals move to pass
The humble seeker in,
The voice of prayer pervades the place,
And proves the Light DIVINE.
- 3 On every hill our dead they lie,
And green sprigs deck the knoll;
Their fall was moisture to the eye,
But triumph to the soul.
Our orphans smile in every home,
Our widow's hearts are glad;
Our "Light" dispels the darkest gloom,
And comfort finds the sad.
- 4 Thus link in link, from shore to shore,
The mystic chain is bound;
Oh, blended thus forevermore
May Masons' hearts be found:
And while the heavens, on pillars sure
Of Strength and Wisdom stand,
May Brotherhood like ours endure,
Where Strength and Wisdom blend.

192 Opening Hymn.

- 1 O God! we lift our hearts to thee,
And grateful voices raise;
We thank thee for this festive night,—
Accept our humble praise.
Here may our souls delight to bless
The God of truth and grace,
Who crowns our labors with success,
Among the rising race!
- 2 May each unholy passion cease,
Each evil thought be crushed,
Each anxious care that mars our peace
In Faith and Love be hushed.
Oh! may we all in Truth abound,
And Charity pursue;
Thus shall we be with glory crowned
And love as angels do.

We are his work, and not our own: He form'd us by his word.

196 Opening.

- 1 Blest are the sons of peace,
Whose hearts and hopes are one;
Whose kind designs to serve and please,
Through all their actions run.
- 2 Blest is this happy place,
Where Zeal and friendship meet;
Where Truth, and Love, and heav'nly grace,
Make our communion sweet.
- 3 Thus on the heavenly hills
May we be blest above;
Where joy, like morning dew, distils,
And all the air is love.

197 Royal Arch. Opening.

- Thy Name, almighty Lord!
Shall sound through distant lands;
Great is thy grace, and sure thy Word;
Thy Truth forever stands.
- 4 Far be thine honor spread,
And long thy praise endure,
Till morning light and evening shade
Shall be exchanged no more.

198 Dedication, &c.

- 1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in virtuous love:
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers,
Our fears, our hopes, our aims ~~are one~~
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain:
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 4 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 5 From sorrow, toil and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

For friendship rivets man to man,
And makes us all as one.

Still louder, Fame! thy trumpet blow.
Let all the distant regions know
Free-Masonry is this:
Almighty Wisdom gave it birth,
And Heaven has fixed it here on earth
A type of future bliss!

222 Social Song.

1 Convened we're met my jovial souls,
Then fill again the flowing bowls,
Let concord be the toast;
With glass in hand, let each agree
To sing in praise of Masonry,
What mortal more can boast.

2 Here dove-eyed peace, celestial maid,
Stands ready waiting us to aid,
And guard our mystic door!
Here's charity, from heaven sent,
To bring her freeborn sons content,
And comfort to the poor.

3 See, in the East effulgent shine,
Bright wisdom with his rays divine,
Hark! hark the solemn sound;
While thus we live in mutual love,
We taste what angels do above,
Here happiness is found.

4 The fruit of Eden's tree we taste,
Its balmy joys are our repast,
Here freedom cheers the heart;
The indigent, oppress with grief,
Gains from his brother's hand relief,
Each to his want impart.

5 The great and good, with us combine
To trace our mysteries divine,
And find the pleasing light;
With pleasure we pursue the plan,
While friendship rivets man to man,
How pleasing is the sight.

6 Till Heaven sends its summons forth,
From east to west, from south to north,
Her chosen sons to call;
While time runs its continual round,
Shall fame with golden trumpet sound,
Masons shall never fall.

223 Masonic Ode.

1 Hail, Mystic Light! whose holy flame
Can cheer the weak, the fierce can tame,
And raise the trembling soul!
Hail, sacred source of human skill!
Hail, great director of the will!
Star of the mental pole!

2 Hail, Masonry! thou first, thou last,
Of all the scope by mind embraced;
Thou teacher, friend, and guide;
Around thine altar now we stand
In union strong, a loving band
Thus will we e'er abide.

224 Anniversary, or Installation.

1 When darkness veiled the hopes of man,
Then light with radiant beams began
To cheer his clouded way;
In graceful form, to soothe his woes,
The Beauty to his vision rose,
In bright and gentle ray.

2 Immortal Order stood confessed,
From furthest East to distant West,
In columns just and true;
The faithful Plumb and Level there,
Uniting with the mystic Square,
The Temple brought to view.

3 Descending then from heaven, Most High
Came Charity with tearful eye
To dwell with feeble man;
Hope whispered peace in brighter skies
On which a trusting Faith relies,
And earth's best joys began.

4 Abroad was seen the boon of Heaven,
Fraternal Love was kindly given,
And touched each kindred heart;
The Sons of Light with transport then
In kindness to their fellow men,
Unveiled the Mystic Art.

5 Let grateful peans loudly raise
O'er earth's domains, to azure skies,
As time shall onward move;
A brother's joy and we shall be,
Undying bonds to mark the Free,
To wake a brother's Love.

225 Masonic Song.

1 Divine Urania, virgin pure!
Enthroned in the Olympian bower,
I here invoke thy lays!
Celestial muse! awake the lyre,
With heaven-born sweet seraphic fire,
Free-Masonry to praise.

2 The stately structures that arise,
And brush the concave of the skies,
Still ornament thy shrine;
Th' aspiring dome, those works of ours
"The solemn temples—cloud cap towers
Confess the Art divine.

3 With Prudence all our actions are,
By Bible, Compass, and by Square,
In love and truth combined;
While Justice and Benevolence,
With Fortitude and Temperance
Adorn and grace the mind!

254 Opening.

- 1 Suppliant, lo! we humbly bend,
Father, for thy blessing now;
Thou canst teach us, guide, defend;
We are weak, but mighty thou.
- 2 Shed abroad, in every mind,
Light celestial from above;
Charity for all our kind,
Trusting faith and holy love.

255 Opening, or Closing.

- 1 Holy Spirit, from on high,
Bend o'er us a pitying eye;
Life and peace to us impart;
Dwell thyself in every heart.
- 2 May we constant grow in grace,
And with vigor run the race,
Trained in wisdom, led by love,
Till we reach our rest above.

256 Opening.

- 1 Holy Lord, lend now thine ear,
While our grateful song we raise;
May devotion, pure, sincere,
Mingle with our notes of praise.
- 2 Help us at this sacred hour;
Send the cares of earth away;
May we feel thy Spirit's power
While we chant our solemn lay.
- 3 Fill our hearts with holy fear,
While we feel thy presence nigh;
Let contrition's gentle tear
Moisten every brother's eye.

258 Opening, or Closing.

- 1 Father! glory be to thee,
Source of all the good we see;
Glory for the blessed light,
Rising on the ancient night;
Glory for the hopes that come,
Streaming through the dreary tomb,
Glory for the counsel given,
Guiding us in peace to heaven.
- 2 Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Be thy glorious name adored;
Lord! thy mercies never fail;
Hail! celestial goodness, hail!
While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in thy way;
Then on high we'll joyful raise
Songs of everlasting praise.

259 Closing.

Thou from whom we never part,
Thou whose love is everywhere,
Thou who seest every heart,
Listen to our evening prayer.
Heavenly Father, through the night
Keep us safe from every ill;
Cheerful, at the morning light,
May we wake to do thy will.

260 Hymn, For Various Occasions

- 1 Father of the human race,
Wise, beneficent, and kind,
Spread o'er nature's ample face,
Flows thy goodness unconfined
Musing in the silent grove,
Or the busy walks of men,
Still we trace thy wondrous love,
Claiming large returns again.
- 2 Lord, what offerings shall we bring
At thine altars, when we bow?
Hearts, the pure unsullied spring
Whence the kind affections flow;
Soft compassion's feeling soul,
By the melting eye expressed;
Sympathy, at whose control
Sorrow leaves the wounded breast
- 3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
Heal the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
Charity, with liberal store:
Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus th' accepted offering bring,—
Love to thee and all mankind.

262 Funeral Hymn.

1 Cease, ye mourners; cease to languish
 O'er the graves of those ye love;
 Pain and death, and night and anguish,
 Enter not the world above.
 While in darkness ye are straying,
 Lonely in the deep'ning shade,
 Glory's brightest beams are playing
 Round th' Immortal spirit's head.

2 Cease, ye mourners; cease to languish
 O'er the graves of those ye love;
 Far removed from pain and anguish,
 They are chanting hymns above.
 Light and grace at once deriving
 From the hand of God on high,
 In His glorious presence shining,
 They shall never, never die.

263 Closing.

Lord, may angels watch above us,
 Keep us all from error free;
 May they guard, and guide, and love us,
 Till from earth we be set free.
 May our footsteps never falter
 In the path the good have trod;
 May we worship at the altar
 Of the great and living God.

264 Encampment.

1 Gently, Lord! Oh! gently lead us,
 Through this pilgrimage of tears;
 Through the changes thou'st decreed us,
 Till our last great change appears:
 When temptation's darts assail us,
 When in devious paths we stray
 Let thy goodness never fail us,
 Lead us in thy perfect way.

2 In the hour of pain and anguish,
 In the hour when death draws near,
 Suffer not our hearts to languish,
 Suffer not our souls to fear;
 And, when mortal life is ended,
 Bid us on thy bosom rest,
 Till, by angel bands attended,
 We awake among the blest

265 Closing.

Now, in gratitude abounding,
 May our hearts find sweet employ
 Every tuneful chord resounding
 With the notes of grateful joy:
 May the tear of human sorrow
 Still through skies of mercy fall;
 Grant, oh Father, that the mortal
 May to fresh rejoicing call.

Brothers, faithful and deserving,
Now the second rank you fill,
Purchased by your faultless serving,
Leading to a higher still.

2 Thus from rank to rank ascending,
Mounts the Mason's path of love;
Bright its earthly course, and ending
In the glorious Lodge above.

268 Opening.

1 Here all worldly cares forgetting,
Every stormy passion stilled,
Angels bless us with their presence,
And our souls with peace are filled.

2 Vainly break life's bitter surges
'Gainst the walls that gird us in;
Only in the faintest murmurs,
Comes to us their angry din.

3 Here, while heart to heart respondeth,
Through the pulse's rhythmic beat,
Soul with soul, in fullest measure,
Blendeth in communion sweet.

269 Closing.

1 Now we part! what sad emotion
Fills each Brother's kindly heart,
As amid the world's commotion
Each retires to take a part.

2 Let us, round this sacred altar,
All our solemn vows renew;
Never waver, never falter,
Each be steadfast, firm, and true.

270 Charity.

1 Meek and lowly, pure and holy,
Chief among the blessed three,
Turning sadness into gladness,
Heaven-born art thou, Charity!

2 Hoping ever, failing never,
Though deceived, believing still;
Long abiding, all confiding
To thy Heavenly Father's will.

3 Never weary of well doing,
Never fearful of the end;
Claiming all mankind as Brothers
Thou dost all alike befriend

281 Closing Hymn.

Now our festive joys are ending,
And we all again must part;
Ere we go, our voices blending,
Give the tribute of the heart:
Offer thanks, with grateful feeling,
For our Father's love and grace,
For the truths, like plants of healing,
For the wounds of all our race.

2 Let us each, the lessons heeding
Of this holy festal time,
Strive by earnest prayer and reading,
To possess the Truth sublime;—
Truth, that kindles like the shining
Of the stars when eve sets in;
Truth far better for divining
Than the rods and charts of men.

3 Now farewell! but ere retreating,
Let us here, in union strong,
Vow we will not live defeating
All that prompts to turn from wrong;
Then at last, on high ascending,
Shall our anthems joyous rise;
With angelic voices blending
Far above yon azure skies.

282 Opening.

1 When the light of day is winging,
To this place we oft repair;
Here we all unite in singing,
Here devoutly join in prayer:
While in harmony our voices
Are ascending to our God,
Every grateful heart rejoices
Thus to spread his praise abroad.

2 In the duties now before us,
Let us faithfully engage;
May the light of Truth shine o'er us,
Brightly from the sacred page:
Father! thus in pure devotion,
Every thought inspired by love,
Gratitude in each emotion,
Would we lift our souls above.

283 Closing.

Lo! the day at last declineth,
Gather fast the shades of night;
Yet the sun that ever shineth
Fills our souls with heavenly light.
While, thine ear of love addressing,
Thus our parting hymn we sing,
Father, with thine evening blessing,
Rest we safe beneath thy wing.

284 Opening.

1 Heavenly Father, gently bless us,
Lead our every thought above;
Let no earthly care oppress us,
May we all be filled with love.
Let no jarring thought divide us,
Sweetest harmony be ours;
Wisdom's richest feast provide us,
As we pass these happy hours.

2 Father! hear the prayer we offer;
For repose we do not cry,
But for grace, that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.
Be our strength in every weakness,
In our doubt be thou our guide;
Through each peril, through each danger
Draw us nearer to thy side.

285 Funeral Hymn.

1 Cease, ye mourners; cease to languish
O'er the graves of those you love;
Pain, and night, and death, and anguish
Enter not the world above.
While in darkness ye are straying,
Lonely in the deepening shade,
Glory's brightest beams are playing
Round th' immortal spirit's head.

2 Cease, ye mourners; cease to languish
O'er the graves of those you love;
Far removed from pain and anguish,
They are chanting hymns above.
Light and grace at once deriving,
From the land of God on high,
In His glorious presence shining,
They shall never, never die.

286 Royal Arch. Closing.

1 Humbly at thine altar kneeling,
Hear us, Father, hear, we pray;
Thou whose eye doth watch us sleeping,
Safely keep us through life's day.
Guide us, Heavenly Father, guide us;
Cleanse our thoughts from every stain
Let the grace of thy pure spirit
Be our soul's delight and aim.

2 When our day of life is over,
May we dwell with Thee above;
May we join with seraph's hymning
Praise to thee—thou God of Love.
There, with angel harps and voices,
May we swell the ceaseless song,
Ever happy, ever holy,
Thou our God, and Heaven our home.

- 1 Mark Masters all appear;
Before the Chief O'erseer,
In concert move;
Let him your work inspect,
For the Chief Architect;
If there be no defect,
He will approve.

For your reward prepare;
Join heart and hand;
Each with his mark in view,
March with the just and true,
Wages to you are due,
At your command.

Sent unto Solomon,
Our great keystone;
On it appears the name,
Which raises high the fame
Of all to whom the same
Is truly known.

Where, full of strength and love,
Hiram doth stand;
But if imposters are

Caution them to beware
Of the right hand.

Who triumphed o'er the foes
Of Masons' art:
To the praiseworthy three,
Who founded this degree;

Closing.

God of our Fathers, hear,
And to our cry be near,
Jehovah, God!
While we before thee bow,
Forgive in mercy now,
Thy servants here, O Thou
Eternal God.

294 Knight's Templar.

- God bless the worthy band,
 Who grace this happy land
 With valiant Knights;
 May the united Three
 Of the blest Trinity,
 Cement the Unity
 Of all great lights.
- 2 No Turk or Jew we'll fight,
 But in Religion's right
 We'll breathe our last;
 Entered, passed, raised, and arched,
 And then like princes marched,
 And though with rigor searched,
 Glorious we've passed.
- 3 Then Knights, clasp hand in hand;
 In one united band
 We circle round;
 May we e'er live in love;
 May none unfaithful prove;
 And finally, above
 May all be found.

295 Anniversary Ode.

- E'er this vast world was made,
 Or its foundation laid,
 Our Art begun;
 Cherub and Cherubim,
 Seraph and Seraphim,
 Joined in one glorious hymn
 Before the throne.
- 2 God their Grand Master was;
 Fixed their unerring laws;
 By his decree:
 Faith, Hope, and Charity,
 Friendship, and Unity,
 Truth, Love, and Secrecy,
 All laws divine.
- 3 Oh may our constant theme,
 To Heaven's Great King, Supreme!
 Be grateful Love:
 May we whene'er we meet,
 Chant Hallelujah's sweet, } Three
 And three times three repeat } times.
 Jehovah's praise.

296 Closing.

When our last labor's o'er,
 And scenes of life no more
 Curtain our frail sight;
 Then, in God's holy care,
 May each protection share,
 Bliss find unending there,
 In perfect light.

297 Installation, or Dedication.

- 1 Thou! who art God alone,
 Accept before thy throne
 Our fervent prayer!
 To fill with light and grace
 This house, thy dwelling-place,
 And bless thy chosen race,
 O God! draw near.
- 2 As through the universe,
 All nature's works diverse,
 Thy praise accord;
 Let Faith upon us shine,
 And Charity combine,
 With Hope, to make us thine
 Jehovah, Lord.
- 3 Spirit of Truth and Love,
 Descending from above,
 Our hearts inflame,
 Till Masonry's control
 Shall build in one the whole,
 A Temple of the soul
 To thy great name.

298 Laying Foundation Stone.

- 1 Let Masons' fame resound
 Through all the nations round,
 From pole to pole:
 See what felicity,
 Harmless simplicity,
 Like electricity,
 Runs through the whole.
- 2 When in the Lodge we're met,
 And in due order set,
 Happy are we:
 Faith, Hope, and Charity,
 Love and Sincerity,
 Friendship and Unity,
 Are ever free.
- 3 Long may our Craft be free,
 And may they ever be
 Great, as of yore:
 For many ages past
 Masonry has stood fast,
 And may its glory last
 Till time's no more.

299 Doxology.

Come, and with generous will,
 Past Master, bring your skill

 Each erring thought reform,
 With Truth each bosom warm,
 Inspired by love.

Firm as our columns stand,
 Be each approved command,
 Where Brothers dwell:
 Let notes of gladness roll
 Over each trusting soul;
 Far as from pole to pole
 Let anthems swell.

304

Invocation.

Let there be light! said God;
 And o'er the blooming sod
 Broke forth the Morn!
 Glad nature smiled in mirth,
 While beauty filled the earth,
 And flowers were born!

Let there be light within;
 Then darkness, woe, and sin,
 Your night is riven:
 Then in pale sorrow's eye,
 The starting tear shall dry;
 O speed it, Heaven.

Knights Templar.

The laws of Christian light,
 These are our weapons bright,
 Our mighty shield;
 Christ is our leader high,
 And the broad plains which lie
 Beneath the blessed sky
 Our battle-field.

On, then, in God's great name;
 Let each pure spirit's flame
 Burn bright and clear:
 Stand firmly in your lot,
 Cry ye aloud, "Doubt not!"
 Be every fear forgot;
 Christ leads us here.

So shall earth's distant lands,
 In happy, holy bands,
 One brotherhood,
 Together rise and sing,
 And joyful offerings bring,
 And hear on's eternal King
 Pronounce it good.

1 Come, thou incarnate Word,
 Come, thou our glorious Lord,
 Our prayer attend;
 Come, and thy servants bless,
 Come, give thy cause success;

2 Come, holy Comforter,
 Thy sacred witness bear,
 In this glad hour:
 Thou who Almighty art,
 Now rule in every heart,
 And ne'er from us depart,
 Spirit of power.

3 To Thee, great One in Three,
 The highest praises be,
 Hence evermore;
 Thy sovereign majesty
 May we in glory see,
 And to eternity
 Love and adore.

308 Anniversary, or Installation.

1 Praise ye Jehovah's Name;
 Praise through his courts proclaim
 Rise and adore;
 High o'er the heavens above,
 Sound his great acts of love:
 While his rich grace we prove,
 Vast as his power.

2 Now let our voices raise
 Triumphant sounds of praise,
 Wide as his fame;
 There let the harps be found,
 Organs with solemn sound,
 Roll your deep notes around —
 Filled with his name.

3 While his high praise ye sing
 Strike every sounding string:
 Sweet the accord!
 He vital breath bestows —
 Let every breath that flows,
 His noblest fame disclose —
 Praise ye the Lord.

Our Father, God.

311 Encampment. Installation.

- 1 Glory to God on high!
Let earth and skies reply,
Praise ye his name!
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore,
Sing ye forevermore,
Worthy the Lamb!

- 2 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Saviour, God, to bless;
Praise ye his name!
To him our songs we bring,
Hail him our gracious King,
And, without ceasing, sing
Worthy the Lamb!

- 3 Hail! Sovereign Prince of Peace!
And may we never cease
Praising his name;
To him our songs we bring,
Hail him our gracious King,
And, without ceasing, sing
Worthy the Lamb!

312 Installation Ode.

1 Hail! Masonry divine!
 Glory of ages shine,
 Long may'st thou reign;
 Where'er thy lodges stand,
 May they have great command,
 And always grace the land;
 Thou Art divine!

1 Great fabrics still arise,
 And grace the azure skies,
 Great are thy schemes:
 Thy noble orders are
 Matchless beyond compare,
 No art with thee can share;
 Thou art divine!

1 Hiram, the Architect,
 Did all the Craft direct
 How they should build;
 Sol'mon, great Israel's king,
 Did mighty blessings bring,
 And left us room to sing,
 Hail! royal Art!

313 Most Excellent Master. Opening.

1 See from the Orient rise,
 Bright beams to bless our eyes,
 All hearts to cheer;
 Let all with one consent,
 Impelled by true intent,
 Become Most Excellent,
 In love sincere.

2 Bring songs of joyous sound;
 Bring holy thoughts profound;
 With hearts sincere:
 Long be the Cap-stone found
 Grateful to all around,
 And notes of joy resound
 In accents clear.

314 Past Master.

1 Come, and with generous will,
 Past Master, bring your skill
 Our work to prove;
 Calm each invading storm,
 Each erring thought reform,
 With Truth each bosom warm,
 Inspired by love.

1 Firm as our columns stand,
 Be each approved command,
 Where Brothers dwell:
 Let notes of gladness roll
 Over each trusting soul;
 Far as from pole to pole
 Let anthems swell.

315 Closing.

Spirit of Truth and Love,
 Descending from above,
 Our hearts inflame,
 Till Masonry's control
 Shall build in one the whole,
 A Temple of the soul
 To thy great Name.

316 Installation, or Anniversary Ode.

BY S. D. W. BROWN

1 Hail! brother Masons, hail!
 Let friendship long prevail,
 And bind us fast;
 May harmony and peace
 Our happiness increase,
 And friendship never cease,
 While life doth last.

2 Sincerity and love,
 Descendants from above,
 Our minds employ;
 Morality our pride,
 And truth our constant guide,
 With us are close allied,
 And form our joy.

3 We on the level meet,
 And every brother greet,
 Skilled in our art;
 And when our labor's past,
 Each brother's hand we'll grasp
 Then on the square at last,
 Friendly we'll part.

4 May Wisdom be our care,
 And Virtue form the square
 By which we live;
 That we at last may join
 The Heavenly Lodge sublime,
 Where we shall perfect shine
 With God above.

317 God Bless our Native Land.

1 God bless our native land!
 Firm may she ever stand,
 Through storm and night
 When the wild tempests rave,
 Ruler of wind and wave,
 Do thou our country save,
 By thy great might.

2 For her our prayer shall rise
 To God above the skies;
 On him we wait;
 Thou who hast heard each sigh,
 Watching each weeping eye,
 Be thou forever nigh;—
 God save the State!

Faith, Hope, and Charity.

Faith.

- 1 There's a vision once seen never passeth from sight,
 For it fixeth the eye, fills the soul with delight;
 It clears all obstructions, admits of no shade,
 Is a light to the mind—is a beam not to fade.

Hope.

- 2 There's a glow so seraphic, to gladden the earth,
 We feel, while it lingers, its heavenly birth;
 It blesses and cheers, soothes and comforts the world,
 Embracing the globe, with its bright folds unfurled.

Charity.

- 3 There's a joy so absorbing, a rapture so calm,
 It lives while there's impulse the heart's blood to warm
 Nor quenched till the spirit shall part from the clay
 It illumines with its glory life's dreariest day.

Fellow Craft. Work.

- 1 Come, Craftsmen, assembled our pleasure to share,
Who walk by the Plumb, and who work by the Square;
While traveling in love, on the Level of time,
Sweet Hope shall light on to a far better clime.
- 2 We'll seek in our labors the Spirit Divine,
Our temple to bless, and our hearts to refine;
And thus to our altar a tribute we'll bring,
While, joined in true Friendship, our anthem we sing.
- 3 See Order and Beauty rise gently to view,
Each brother a column, so perfect and true!
When Order shall cease, and when temples decay,
May each, fairer columns, immortal survey.

327

Masonic Song.

- 1 Oh! think not that life is the time for repose,
For the spirit to slumber, the eyelids to close;
Its hour is of actions, for heart and for hand,
No idle delay shall our progress withstand.
- 2 True joy will be found as the soul struggles on,
And life's wreath of glory unfading be won;
And wisdom shall shed o'er the spirit a ray,
Where beauty and freshness shall ne'er fade away.

828

Closing.

- 1 Farewell, till again we shall welcome the time
Which brings us once more to our fame-cherished shrine;
And though from each other we distant may roam,
Again may all meet in this, our dear loved home:
Home, home, sweet, sweet home,
May every dear brother find joy and peace at home.
- 2 And when our last parting on earth shall draw nigh,
And we shall be called to the Grand Lodge on high,
May each be prepared, when the summons shall come,
To meet our Grand Master in heaven our home:
Home, home, sweet, sweet home,
May every dear brother in Heaven find a home.

829

The Mason's Home.

- 1 Should the chances of life ever tempt me to roam,
In a Lodge of Freemasons I'll still find a home;
There the sweet smile of Friendship still welcomes each guest,
And Brotherly Love gives that welcome a zest.
- 2 When absent from Lodge, pleasure tempts me in vain;
I sigh for the moments of meeting again;
For Friendship and Harmony truly are there,
Where we meet on the level, and part on the square.
- 3 There the soul-binding Union surely is known,
Which unites both the peasant and king on the throne
There the rich and the poor on the level do meet,
And, as brothers, each other most cordially greet.
- 4 On the quicksands of life should a brother be thrown,
It is then that the friendship of brothers is known;
For the heart points the hand his distress to remove,
For our motto is "Kindness and Brotherly Love."
- 5 When the Master of all, from his star-studded throne,
Shall issue his mandate to summon us home,
May each brother be found to be duly prepared,
In the Grand Lodge above us to meet his reward

114 Masonic Song

Friend and Brothers, swell the song,
Every voice the strain prolong,
Join in chorus loud and strong;

On to victory:

Lift our banners, let them wave,
Onward still, the wretched save,
Smooth their pathway to the grave;
Be their friend indeed.

2 Give the aching bosom rest,
Carry joy to every breast,
Make the poor and needy blest;
Grant them kind relief:
Raise the glorious watchword high,
"Love! Relief! and Charity!"
Let the echo reach the sky,
Swelling joyfully.

3 God of mercy! hear us plead,
Help us while we intercede;
Oh, how many bosoms bleed,—
Heal them speedily:
Hasten then the happy day,
When, beneath thy gentle ray,
All the world shall own thy sway;
Reign triumphantly.

335 Bear Him Home.

1 Bear him home, his bed is made
In the stillness of the shade;
Bear the Brother to his home;
Bear, oh, bear him home.
Home, where all his toils are o'er,
Home, where journeying is no more:
Bear him home no more to roam;
Bear the Brother home.

2 Lay him down—his bed is here—
See, the dead are resting near;
Lay the wanderer gently down;
Lay him gently down.
Lay him down; let nature spread
Starry curtains o'er his head;
Gently lay our Brother down;
Gently lay him down.

3 Ah, not yet for us the bed
Where the faithful pilgrim's laid:
Through life's weariness and woe,
Still our footsteps go.
Let us go and on our way,
Faithful journey, faithful pray;
Boldly, Brother pilgrims, go!
Boldly let us go!

336

Opening

1 Brethren all, where'er ye be,
Sons of Light, ye Masons be,
Honor, Truth, and Virtue be
Pride of Masonry!
Fervent zeal, with heart and hand,
Love-cemented, mystic band,
Firm, undaunted make us stand,
Glorious Masonry.

2 Masons all, from pole to pole,
Love may guide, and truth control,
Sorrows come;—what can console
Griefs like Masonry!
Kindly smiling we have met,
Welcome each, and ne'er forget
Absent ones whom we regret,
Friends in Masonry.

3 Craftsmen all, may love impart
Warmth to each honest heart;
Oft consult that faithful chart,
Guide of Masonry.
When the spirit heaven hath fled,
Angel guard their pinions spread,
Joyful crown each Mason's head,
Heavenly Masonry.

Patriotic Ode.

1 Clime! beneath whose genial sun,
Kings were quelled, and freedom won
Where the dust of Washington
Sleeps in glory's bed,—
Heroes from thy sylvan shade
Changed the plow for battle blade,—
Holy men for thee have prayed,
Patriot martyrs bled.

2 Crownless Judah mourns in gloom;
Greece lies slumbering in the tomb
Rome hath shorn her eagle-plume,
Lost her conquering name.
Youthful Nation of the West,
Rise! with truer greatness blest,
Sainted bands from realms of rest
Watch thy brightening flame

3 Empire of the brave and free!
Stretch thy sway from sea to sea;
Who shall bid thee bend the knee
To a tyrant's throne?
Knowledge is thine armor bright;
Liberty thy beacon-light;
God himself thy shield of might.
Bow to him alone.

for souls distress'd, A balm for ev'ry wounded breast, 'Tis found a-lone in heav'n.

- 2 There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven;
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
And all is drear,—'tis heaven.
- 3 There Faith lifts up the tearless eye,
The heart no longer riven;
And views the tempest passing by,
The evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene in heaven.
- 4 There fragrant flowers, immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom;
Beyond the dark and narrow tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven.

339 Opening.

- 1 Blest is the hour when cares depart,
And earthly scenes are far!
When tears of woe forget to start,
And gently cawns upon the heart
Devotion's holy star.
- 2 Blest is the place, when Brothers bend,
And fervent prayers arise;
Where kindred hearts in union blend,
And all the soul's affections tend
Beyond the veiling skies.

340 Hymn.

- 1 This world is poor from shore to shore,
A baseless fabric given;
Its lofty domes and brilliant ore,
Its gems and crowns are vain and poor.
There's nothing rich but heaven.
- 2 Empires decay, and nations die,
Our hopes to winds are given;
The vernal blooms in ruin lie,
Death reigns o'er all beneath the sky,
There's nothing sure but heaven.
- 3 Creation's mighty fabric, all,
Shall be to atoms riven;
The skies consume, the planets fall,
Convulsions rock this earthly ball;—
There's nothing firm but heaven.

341 Opening.

- 1 Sing hallelujah to the Lord!
Sing with a cheerful voice;
Exalt the Lord with one accord,
Exalt the Lord with one accord,
And in his name rejoice.
- 2 May we to all eternity
Join in th' angelic lays,
And sing in perfect harmony,
And sing in perfect harmony,
Our great Creator's praise.

Un-to com-plete per-fec-tion, Our mys-te-ries to learn;
Not those who vis-it Lodg-es To eat and drink their fill;
Not those who at our meet-ings Hear Lec-tures 'gainst their will.

The faithful, worthy brother,
 Whose heart can feel for grief,
 Whose bosom with compassion
 Steps forth to its relief;
 Whose soul is ever ready,
 Around him to diffuse
 The principles of Masons,
 And guard them from abuse;
 These are thy sons whose pleasure,
 At every Lodge, will be
 T' improve themselves, by lectures,
 In glorious Masonry.

CHORUS—Hail! glorious Masonry! &c.

King Solomon, our patron,
 Transmitted this command—
 "The faithful and praiseworthy
True light must understand;
 And my descendants, also,
 Who're seated in the East,

Have not fulfilled their duty,
 Till light has reached the West."
 Therefore our highest pleasure,
 At every Lodge, should be
 To improve ourselves, by lectures,
 In glorious Masonry!

CHORUS—Hail! glorious Masonry! &c

My duty and my station,
 As Master in the chair,
 Obliges me to summon
 Each brother to prepare;
 That all may be enabled,
 By slow, though sure degrees,
 To answer in rotation,
 With honor and with ease.
 Such are thy sons, whose pleasure,
 At every Lodge, will be
 T' improve themselves by lectures
 In glorious Masonry!

363 Hail! Hail the Mystic Tie.

(BY BRO. S. WOODWORTH.)

Hail! hail the mystic tie,
Glorious orb of Masonry;
Like the orient beams of morn,
The bright empurpled East adorn,
To add effulgence to the day,
And drive the mists of night away.
Glorious source of light divine,
Friendship, peace, and virtue's shrine,
Songs of gratitude we raise;
Dedicate to thee our praise.

CHORUS.

Brothers, join the festive throng,
Social mirth inspires our song,
While in Harmony we meet,
And Masons all as Brothers greet.

See! see the darkness fly
Before the sun of Masonry;
Formed by heaven's almighty hand,
Its base as firm as earth shall stand,
Diffusing Light from East to West,
And nations with its beams be blest.
Arching ages round shall roll,
Time the fate of man control,
Still resplendent light shall stand,
Its summit reared by Virtue's hand.
Brothers join, &c.

Hail! hail, thou heavenly guest,
Sanctioned by the high behest,
Let Truth and Friendship be our guide,
Beneath whose compass we confide:
Our actions Squared by virtue's laws,
To magnify our first great cause.
Then, when life's meridian's past,
The tie of Friendship still shall last,
Its sacred Unity endure,
'Till endless ages be no more.
Brothers join, &c.

364 Patriotic Ode.

Hail, Columbia, happy land!
Hail, ye heroes! heaven-born band;
Who fought and bled in freedom's cause,
Who fought and bled in freedom's cause,
And when the storm of war had gone,
Enjoyed the peace your valor won;
Let Independence be your boast:
Ever mindful what it cost,
Ever grateful for the prize,
Let its altar reach the skies.

CHORUS.

Firm, united let us be,
Rallying round our liberty,
As a band of Brothers joined,
Peace and safety we shall find.

Heroes, Patriots, rise once more,
Guard your rights, defend your shore,
Let no rude foe with impious hand,
Let no rude foe with impious hand,
Invade the shrine, where sacred lies
Of toil and blood the well-earned prize
While offering peace, sincere and just,
Place in heaven your manly trust,
Truth and Justice shall prevail,
Every wicked scheme shall fail.
Firm, united, &c.

Sound again the trumpet of fame!
Let our Washington's great name
Ring thro' the world with loud applause
Ring thro' the world with loud applause
Let every clime to freedom dear,
All listen with a joyful ear;
With equal skill, with steady power
He rules in the fearful hour;
Guides in horrid war, with ease
And in times of honest peace.

Of your Hearts to take Care.

- 1 O your hearts to take care, now ladies prepare,
Be silent; I'll tell you the reason:
Sly Cupid, they say, as the most certain way
To conquer the fair, is made Mason.
- 2 The music you hear will ravish your ear;
Your eye will be pleased past expression:
But think on the smart that follows the dart,
When thrown by the hand of a Mason.
- 3 The nymph may pretend her heart to defend;
But let her from me take a lesson:
She's surely undone, though her heart were of stone,
It will melt at one glance of a Mason.
- 4 By the apron and glove, Cupid reigns god of love;
His empire to deny sure is treason:
Then don't be ashamed, nor fear to be blamed,
If you should fall in love with a Mason.

572

When Quite a Young Spark.

- 1 When quite a young spark, I was quite in the dark,
And wanted to alter my station;
I went to a friend, who proved in the end
A Free and an Accepted Mason.
- 2 At the door then he knocked, which quickly unlocked
When he bid me to put a good face on,
And not be afraid, for I should be made
A Free and an Accepted Mason.
- 3 My wishes were crowned, and a Master I found,
Who made me a most solemn oration;
Then showed me the light, and gave me the right
Sign, token, and word of a Mason.
- 4 How great my amaze, when I first saw the blaze!
And how struck with the mystic occasion!
Astonished I found, though free, I was bound
To a Free and an Accepted Mason.
- 5 When clothed in white, I took great delight
In the work of this noble vocation:
And knowledge I gained, when the Lodge he explained,
Of a Free and an Accepted Mason.
- 6 I was bound it appears for seven long years,
Which to me is of trifling duration:
With freedom I serve, and strain every nerve,
To acquit myself like a Mason.
- 7 With hearty good will, let's show our best skill,
To our Master pay due veneration;
Who taught us the Art we ne'er will impart,
Unless to an Accepted Mason.

HAIL TO THE DAY!

"HAIL TO THE CHIEF."

1. Hail, to the day! when as - sem - bled in Union, Springs at the al - tar of Friend - ship and Truth, Pledge of our fair - est, our dear - est communion, The flow - ret, which blooms in pe - ren - ni - al youth. Hail to the day! when as - sem - bled in Union, Springs at the al - tar of Friend - ship and Truth, Pledge of our fair - est, our dear - est com - mu - nion, The flow - ret which blooms in pe - ren - ni - al youth; E'er it has flourish'd fair, Sighed on by heaven's air,
 Nur - tured by dew - drops, dis - till'd from a - bove, Bright o'er its na - tal bed,
 Bears of gay light shall spread, Strength'ning the rays of Af - fec - tion and Love.

- 2 Hail to the Craft! whose light, broadly beaming,
 Streams from the loveliest Star of the sky;
 O'er sorrow's vale ever cheerfully gleaming,
 Guiding to yonder bright temple on high;
 Still may that holy ray, Type of immortal day,
 Light the lone path of the pilgrim along;
 Till the Grand Master's 'hest, Bid all his labors rest,
 Attuning his harp to the mystical song.
- 3 Long may each Mason be firm in his duty,
 The grand and the useful in harmony join;
 Long in his Temple may Wisdom and Beauty,
 Stars of the high arch of Masonry shine;
 Here may we often meet, Each brother true to greet,
 Time strewing flowers o'er the swift-rolling year;
 Here may fair Union rise, Here join the good and wise,
 Charity, Friendship, and Truth to revere.
- Now to Creation's Great Builder ascending,
 Loud let the chorus of Gratitude swell;
 Here, as before him we humbly are bending,
 O! may He deign in his Temple to dwell;
 Here may the social fire Of love to heaven aspire,
 Long from this Altar rise incense of praise,
 To the Eternal One, Our ceaseless shining sun,
 Master of all—Holy,—“Ancient of Days!”

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

A PATRIOTIC SONG.

1. O say can you see, by the dawn's ear - ly light,

What so proud - ly we hail'd at the twi - light's last gleam-ing,

Whose stripes and bright stars, through the per - i - lous fight,

O'er the ram - parts we watch'd, Were so gal - lant - ly stream-ing;

And the rock - et's red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air,

Gave proof, through the night, that our flag was still there.

CHORUS.

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
 Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes;
 What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
 As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses;
 Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
 In full glory reflected, now shines in the stream—
 'Tis the star spangled banner, O long may it wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave

And where is that band, who so vauntingly swore
 That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
 A home and a country shall leave us no more;
 Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution
 No refuge could save the hireling and slave
 From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave;
 And the star spangled banner in triumph doth wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
 Between their loved home and the war's desolation;
 Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
 Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation
 Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto—"In God is our trust,"—
 And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

393 An Hour with You.

(BY BRO. ROB. MORRIS.)

Music.—Auld Lang Syne.

An hour with you, an hour with you,

No care, or doubt, or strife,—

Is worth a weary year of woe,

In all that sweetens life;

One hour with you, and you, and you,

Bright links in mystic chain;

Oh may we oft these joys renew,

And often meet again.

2 Your eyes with love's own language free,

Your hand grips strong and true,

Your tongues, your hearts, do welcome me,

To spend an hour with you.

One hour with you, &c.

3 I come, when Eastern skies are bright,

To work my Mason's due;

To labor, is my chief delight,

And spend an hour with you.

One hour with you, &c.

I go when evening gilds the West,

I breathe the fond adieu;

And hope again, by fortune blest,

To spend an hour with you.

One hour with you, &c.

394 High XII.—BY ROB. MORRIS.

1 Here's Columns II. and Pillars V.

Support and grace our Halls of Truth,

But none such sparkling pleasures give,

As the Column that adorns the S.

"HIGH XII." the J. W. calls,

His Column grants the festive hour,

And through our antiquated Halls

Rich streams of social gladness pour

2 'Tis then, all toil and care forgot,

The BOND indissoluble seems;

'Tis then the world's a happy spot,

And hope unmixed with sadness gleams:

HIGH XII.; I've shared the festive hour,

With those who realize the bliss,

And felt that life contains no more

Than sparkles in the joys of this.

3 What memories hover round the time!

What forms rise up to call it blest!

Departed friends—why should it dim

Our joy to know that they're at rest!

HIGH XII.; how they rejoiced to hear!

Quickly each implement laid down,

Glad to exchange for toil and care,

And heavy Cross, a heavenly CROWN.

4 Then Comrades all, by 3 X 3,

Linked in the golden chain of truth,

A hearty welcome pledge with me

To the Column that adorns the S.

HIGH XII.: and never be the hour

Less free, less brotherly than now!

HIGH XII.; a rich libation pour

To joys that none but Masons know!

395 The Emblems of the Craft. R. MORRIS1 Who wears the SQUARE upon his breast,
Does in the eye of God attest,

And in the face of man,

That all his actions will compare

With the Divine, th' unerring Square,

That squares great Virtue's plan.—

That he erects his edifice

By this design, and this, and this! *2 Who wears the LEVEL, says that pride

Does not within his soul abide,

Nor foolish vanity,—

That man has but a common doom,

And from his cradle to his tomb

One common destiny.

And he erects his edifice

By this design, and this, and this!

3 Who wears the G, ah, type divine!

Abhors the atmosphere of sin,

And trusts in God alone;

His father, Maker, friend he knows;—

He vows, and pays to God his vows

Before th' Eternal Throne.

And he erects his edifice

By this design, and this, and this!

4 Who wears the PLUMB, behold how true

His words, his walk! and could we view

The chambers of his soul;

Each thought enshrined, so pure, so good

By the stern line of rectitude,

Points truly to the goal.

And he erects his edifice

By this design, and this, and this!

5 Thus life and beauty come to view,

In each design our fathers drew,

So glorious, so sublime!

Each breathes an odor from the bloom

Of gardens bright, beyond the tomb,—

Beyond the flight of time.

And bids us build on this, and this,

The walls of God's own edifice.

396 Funeral Hymn.—BY ROB. MORRIS

1 Wreath the mourning badge around —

Brothers pause! a funeral sound!

Where the parted had his home,

Meet and bear him to the tomb.

2 How his life-path has been trod,

Brothers, leave we unto God!

Friendship's mantle, love and faith,

Lend sweet fragrance e'en to death.

3 Here, amidst the things that sleep,

Let him rest—his grave is deep;

Death has triumphed, loving hands

Cannot raise him from his bands.

4 Dust to dust, the dark decree —

Soul to God, the soul is free:

Leave him with the lowly slain —

Brothers, we shall meet again.

397 Masonic Ode. 7s. 6 lines.

BY REV. C. BABCOCK.

- 1 On thy bosom, mighty Lord,
Gently may we fall asleep;
Trusting in thy sacred word,
Keep us, Oh! our Father, keep:
From the terrors of the grave,
Save us, Judah's Lion, save!
- 2 As we pass the vale of death,
Round us throw the arm of love;
When we yield this fleeting breath,
Bear us to thy Lodge above,
In the "house not made with hands,"
Compass'd round with angel bands.
- 3 In the resurrection morn,
Raise us with thine own right hand;
Freed from envy and from scorn,
Bring us to the better land —
Where from labor brethren cease,
Share refreshment — dwell in peace.

398 Death of a Brother. C. M.

- 1 As, bowed by sudden storms, the rose
Sinks on the garden's breast,
Down to the grave our brother goes,
In silence there to rest.
- 2 No more with us his tuneful voice
The mystic hymn shall swell;
No more his cheerful heart rejoice,
When peals the Sabbath bell.
- 3 But far away, in cloudless sphere,
Amid a sinless throng,
He's joining, with celestial ear,
The everlasting song.
- 4 No more we'll mourn our absent friend,
But lift our earnest prayer,
That when our work of life shall end,
We all may join him there.

399 Ode. C. P. M.

BY BRO. A. NICHOLS, JR.

- 1 Great Architect, supreme, divine,
Whose wisdom planned the great design,
And gave to nature birth;
Whose word with light adorned the skies,
Gave matter form, bade order rise,
And blessed the new born earth.
- 2 O bless this love-cemented band,
Formed and supported by thy hand,
For Charity's employ;
To shield the wretched from despair,
To spread through scenes of grief and care,
Reviving rays of joy.
- 3 The liberal arts by Thee designed,
To polish, comfort, aid mankind,
We labor to improve;
While we adore Jehovah's name,
Pour on our hearts the melting flame,
And mould our hearts to love.

400 Death of a Companion. S. M.

- 1 Companion! thou hast gone!
Rest from thy loved employ, —
The glorious victory thou hast won
Enter thy Master's joy.
- 2 The pains of death are past;
Labor and sorrow cease;
Life's pilgrimage is closed at last,
The soul is found in peace.
- 3 Companion true, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Master's joy.
- 4 May we, who linger here,
E'er true and faithful be;
Devoted in our humble sphere,
Devoted, Lord, to Thee.

401 Templar's Hymn. 7s.

BY H. G. BARROWS.

- 1 To thy shrine, departed Lord,
Come we, trusting in thy word;
In thy service, richly blest,
Here, we pray thee let us rest.
- 2 Strong in Faith, in Hope, and Love,
Lift we now our thoughts above;
To thy service, pure and free,
Let us consecrated be.
- 3 Let thy light upon us shine,
Fill our hearts with love divine;
On thy arm we trust our all,
Keep us, that we never fall.

402 Laying Corner Stone. 7s. 6 lines

(BY BRO. ROB. MORRIS.)

- 1 Round the spot — Moriah's hill —
Mason's meet with cheerful will;
Him who stood as King that day,
We as cheerfully obey.
Lord, we love thy glorious Name,
Give the grace thou gavest him.
- 2 Round the spot thus chosen well,
Brothers, with fraternal hail,
Gather in your mystic ring,
Mystic words, and joyful sing.
Lord, our hearts, our souls are thine,
On our labors deign to shine.
- 3 Round the spot may Plenty reign, —
Peace, with spirit all benign;
Unity, the golden three —
Here their influence ever be.
Lord, these jewels of Thy store,
Send them bounteous, flowing o'er.
- 4 Round the spot where now we stand
Soon will stand another band;
We to other worlds must go,
Called by Him we trust below.
Lord, thy spirit grant, that they
All thy counsel may obey.

Funeral Ceremonies.

No Freemason can be interred with the formalities of the Order, unless it be at his own request, or that of some of his family, (apprentices, foreigners and transient brethren excepted.) nor unless he has been advanced to the degree of Master Mason. From this rule there can be no exception. Fellow Crafts and Entered Apprentices are not entitled to Masonic Burial; nor to attend the Masonic processions on such occasions. (In some jurisdictions a Masonic Funeral Procession cannot be formed without a Dispensation from the constitutional authorities; in others, it is left with the Masters of the Subordinate Lodges.)

THE FUNERAL SERVICE.

The brethren being assembled at the Lodge room, or some other convenient place, the presiding officer opens the Lodge in the third degree, with the usual forms; and, having stated the purpose of the meeting, the service begins:—

MASTER. What man is he that liveth and shall not see death? Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave?

RESPONSE. Man walketh in a vain shadow; he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

MASTER. When he dieth he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him.

RESPONSE. Naked he came into the world, and naked he must return.

MASTER. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord!

The Master then, taking the roll in his hand, says:—

Let us live and die like the righteous, that our last end may be like his!

RESPONSE. God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death!

The Master then records the name and age of the deceased upon the roll, and says:—

Almighty Father! in thy hands we leave, with humble submission, the soul of our deceased Brother.

The Brethren answer three times, giving the Grand Honors each time.

The will of God is accomplished! So mote it be. Amen.

The Master then deposits the roll in the archives, and repeats the following

PRAYER.

Most Glorious God ! author of all good, and giver of all mercy ! pour down thy blessing upon us, and strengthen our solemn engagements with the ties of sincere affection ! May the present instance of mortality remind us of our approaching fate, and draw our attention toward Thee, the only refuge in time of need ! that when the awful moment shall arrive, that, when we are about to quit this transitory scene, the enlivening prospect of thy mercy may dispel the gloom of death ; and, after our departure hence in peace, and in thy favor, may we be received into thine everlasting kingdom, to enjoy, in union with the souls of our departed friends, the just reward of a pious and virtuous life. Amen.

A procession is then formed, which moves to the house of the deceased, and from thence to the place of interment

SERVICE AT THE GRAVE

BRETHREN:—The solemn notes that betoken the dissolution of this earthly tabernacle, have again alarmed our outer door, and another spirit has been summoned to the land where our fathers have gone before us. Again we are called to assemble among the habitations of the dead, to behold the “narrow house appointed for all living.” Here, around us, in that peace which the world cannot give, sleep the unnumbered dead. The gentle breeze fans their verdant covering—they heed it not; the sunshine and the storm pass over them, and they are not disturbed. Stones and lettered monuments symbolize the affection of surviving friends, yet no sound proceeds from them, save that silent but thrilling admonition—“seek ye the narrow path and the strait gate that lead unto eternal life.” We are again called upon to consider the uncertainty of human life; the immutable certainty of death, and the vanity of all human pursuits. Decrepitude and decay are written upon every living thing. The cradle and the coffin stand in juxtaposition to each other; and it is a melancholy truth, that so soon as we begin to live, that moment also we begin to die. It is passing strange, that, notwithstanding the daily mementos of mortality that cross our path; notwithstanding the funeral bell so often tolls in our ears, and the “mournful processions” go about our streets, that we will not more seriously consider our approaching fate. We go on from design to design, add hope to hope, and lay out plans for the employment of many years, until we are suddenly alarmed at the approach of the Messenger of Death, at a moment when we least expect him, and which we probably conclude to be the meridian of our existence.

What, then, are all the externals of human dignity, the power of wealth, the dreams of ambition, the pride of intellect, or the charms of beauty, when Nature has paid her just debt? Fix your eyes on the last sad scene, and view life stript of its ornaments, and exposed in its natural meanness, and you must be persuaded of the utter emptiness of these delusions. In the grave all fallacies are detected, all ranks are levelled, and all distinctions are done away.

While we drop the sympathetic tear over the grave of our deceased brother, let us cast around his foibles, whatever they may have been, the broad mantle of Masonic charity, nor withhold from his memory the commendation that his virtues claim at our hands. Perfection on earth has never yet been attained: the wisest as well as the best of men have gone astray. Suffer, then, the apologies of human nature to plead for him who can no longer extenuate for himself.

Our present meeting and proceedings will have been vain and useless, if they fail to excite our serious reflections, and strengthen our resolutions of amendment. Be then persuaded, my brethren, by the uncertainty of human life, and the unsubstantial nature of all its pursuits, and no longer postpone the all-important concern of preparing for eternity. Let us each embrace the present moment, and while time and opportunity offer prepare for that great change, when the pleasures of the world shall be as poison to our lips, and happy reflections of a well spent life afford the only consolation. Thus shall our hopes be not frustrated, nor we hurried, unprepared, into the presence of that all-wise and powerful Judge, to whom the secrets of every heart are known. Let us resolve to maintain, with greater assiduity, the dignified character of our profession. May our faith be evinced in a correct moral walk and deportment; may our hope be bright as the glorious mysteries that will be revealed hereafter; and our charity boundless as the wants of our fellow creatures. And having faithfully discharged the great duties which we owe to God, to our neighbor, and ourselves; when at last it shall please the Grand Master of the universe to summon us into his eternal presence, may the trestle-board of our whole lives pass such inspection that it may be given unto each of us to "eat of the hidden manna," and to receive the "white stone with a new name written," that will insure perpetual and unspeakable happiness at his right hand.

The Master then presenting the Apron, continues:

The lamb-skin, or white apron, is the emblem of innocence, and the badge of a Mason. It is more ancient than the golden fleece or Roman eagle; more honorable than the star and garter, when worthily worn.

The Master then deposits it in the grave:

This emblem I now deposit in the grave of our deceased brother. By it we are reminded of the universal dominion of Death. The arm of Friendship cannot interpose to prevent his coming; the wealth of the world cannot purchase our release; nor will the innocence of youth, or the charms of beauty, propitiate his purpose. The mattock, the coffin, and the melancholy grave, admonish us of our mortality, and that, sooner or later, these frail bodies must moulder in their parent dust.

The Master, holding the evergreen, continues:

This evergreen, which once marked the temporary resting-place of the illustrious dead, is an emblem of our faith in the immortality of the soul. By this, we are reminded that we have an immortal part within us, that shall survive the grave, and which shall never, never, never die. By it we are admonished, that, though like our brother, whose remains lie before us, we shall soon be clothed in the habiliments of Death, and deposited in the silent tomb, yet, through the merits of a divine and ascended Saviour, we may confidently hope that our souls will bloom in eternal spring.

The brethren then move in procession round the place of interment, and severally drop the sprig of evergreen into the grave; after which, the public Grand Honors are given (See Mackey's Lexicon.) The Master then continues:

From time immemorial, it has been the custom among the fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons, at the request of a brother, to accompany his corpse to the place of interment, and there to deposit his remains with the usual formalities.

In conformity to this usage, and at the request of our deceased brother, whose memory we revere, and whose loss we now deplore, we have assembled in the character of Masons, to offer up to his memory, before the world, the last tribute of our affection; thereby demonstrating the sincerity of our past esteem for him and our steady attachment to the principles of the Order.

The great Creator having been pleased, out of his infinite mercy, to remove our brother from the cares and troubles of this transitory existence to a state of endless duration, thus severing another link from the fraternal chain that binds us together: may we, who survive him, be more strongly cemented in the ties of union and friendship; that, during the short space allotted us here, we may wisely and usefully employ our time; and, in the reciprocal intercourse of kind and friendly acts, mutually promote the welfare and happiness of each other. Unto the grave we have consigned the body of our deceased brother; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; there to remain until the trump shall sound on the resurrection morn. We can cheerfully leave him in the hands of a Being who has done all things well; who is glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders.

To those of his immediate relatives and friends, who are most heart-stricken at the loss we have all sustained, we have but little of this world's consolation to offer. We can sincerely, deeply, and most affectionately sympathize with them in their afflictive bereavement. But in the beautiful spirit of the Christian's theology, we dare to say, that He, who "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," looks down with infinite compassion upon the widow and fatherless, in the hour of their desolation; and that the same benevolent Saviour, who wept while on earth, will fold the arms of his love and protection around those who put their trust in Him.

Then let us improve this solemn warning, that at last, when the "sheeted dead" are stirring, when the "great white throne" is set, we shall receive from the omniscient Judge, the thrilling invitation, "Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

RESPONSE. So mote it be. Amen.

The folk wing, or some other suitable Hymn may be sung:

FUNERAL HYMN.

1. Sol - emn strikes the fu - neral chime, Notes of our de - part - ing time;

2. Mor - tals now in - dulse a tear, For mor - tal - i - ty is here;

As we journey here be - low, Through a pil - grim - age of woe.

See how wide her tro - phies wave, O'er the slum - bers of the grave.

3 Here another guest we bring,
Seraphs, of celestial wing,
To our fun'ral altar come,
Waft a friend and Brother home.

4 Lord of all below, above,
Fill our souls with Truth and Love;
As dissolves our earthly tie,
Take us to thy Lodge on High.

The two first verses may be sung on entering the Graveyard, while moving in procession; and the third and last verses during the ceremonies at the grave.

The service at the Grave concludes with the following, or some suitable Prayer:

P R A Y E R .

Almighty and most merciful Father, we adore thee as the God of time and of eternity. As it has pleased thee to take from the light of our abode, one dear to our hearts, we beseech thee to bless and sanctify unto us this dispensation of thy Providence. Inspire our hearts with wisdom from on high, that we may glorify thee in all our ways. May we realize that thine All-seeing Eye is upon us, and be influenced by the spirit of truth and love to perfect obedience—that we may enjoy the divine approbation here below. And when our toils on earth shall have ceased, may be raised to the enjoyment of fadeless light and immortal life in that kingdom where faith and hope shall end—and love and joy prevail through eternal ages And thine, O righteous Father, shall be the glory forever. Amen.

RESPONSE. So mote it be. Amen.

BURIAL SERVICE

OF THE

Orders of Masonic Knighthood.*

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. No Sir Knight can be buried with the funeral honors of Knighthood, unless he be a Knight Templar in regular standing.

2. It shall be the duty of the E. Commander to convene the Sir Knights of the Commandery, upon notice of the death of a Sir Knight who may be entitled to receive funeral honors, upon request made when living, or by his family after his decease, for the purpose of attending the funeral ceremonies.

3. Sir Knights, on such occasions, will attend in full uniform, pursuant to the regulations; their sword-hilts and the banner of the Commandery being suitably dressed in mourning.

4. On the coffin of the deceased Sir Knight will be placed his hat and sword; and, if an officer, his jewel, trimmed with crape.

5. The E. Commander will preside during the services, and, assisted by the Prelate, lead in the ceremonies, pursuant to the Ritual. If Grand Officers or Past Grand Officers be present, they will be allotted a place in the procession according to their rank; and if the Grand Prelate, or a Past Grand Prelate be present, he will take the place of the Prelate.

6. The Sir Knights will assemble at their Asylum, and march to the residence of the deceased in the usual order of processions; the line being headed by the Warder, and the Officers being in the rear, according to rank; that is, the E. Commander last; the Prelate being preceded by the Holy Writings, carried on a cushion, and the arms and hat of the deceased borne in the rear of the E. Commander. On arriving at the house, the lines are opened, and the E. Commander passes to the front and receives the body, placing the hat and sword on the coffin, as above directed.

7. The procession is then formed as before; the body, with the mourners and citizens present, being in the rear of the Sir Knights, and in front of the officers. If the services are performed at a church or place of public worship, the procession, on arriving, will enter in reversed order, the E. Commander and Prelate with the other officers preceding the body and mourners.

8. When the public or religious services are concluded, the face of the deceased will be uncovered, and the Sir Knights (or a detachment of them,) will form the "cross of steel," over the body, the E. Commander, with the Prelate, being at the head of the coffin, and the other officers at the foot.

9. When more convenient or desirable, the part of the service before going to the grave, as here indicated, may be performed at the house of the deceased, or be deferred till at the grave.

THE FUNERAL SERVICE OF KNIGHTHOOD WILL BE CONDUCTED
ACCORDING TO THE FOLLOWING

Ritual:

E. COMMANDER. Sir Knights: In the solemn rites of our Order we have often been reminded of the great truth, that we were born to die. Mortality has been brought to view, that we might more earnestly seek an immortality beyond the fleeting life, where death can come no more for ever. The sad and mournful funeral knell has betokened that another spirit has winged its flight to a new state of existence. An alarm has come to the door of our Asylum, and the messenger was Death, and none presumed to say to the awful presence:—"Who dare approach?" A pilgrim warrior has been summoned, and "there is no discharge in that war." A burning taper of life, in our Commandery, has been extinguished, and none, save the High and Holy One, can relight it. All that remains of our beloved Companion Sir Knight lies mute before us, and the light of the eye, and the breathing of the lips, in their language of fraternal greeting, have ceased for us, forever, on this side of the grave. His sword, vowed only to be drawn in the cause of truth, justice, and rational liberty, reposes still in its scabbard, and our arms can no more shield him from wrong or oppression.

* This beautiful Burial Service was prepared by M. E. Jno. L. Lewis, Jr., at the request of the Grand Commandery of New York.

The Sir Knights here return arms.

It is meet at such a time that we should be silent, and let the words of the Infinite and Undying speak, that we may gather consolation from His revelations, and impress upon our minds lessons of wisdom and instruction, and the meetness of preparation for the last great change which must pass upon us all.

Let us be reverently attentive while Sir Knight, our Prelate, reads to us a lesson from the Holy Scriptures.

PRELATE. Help, Lord! for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

RESPONSE. Help us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

RESPONSE. Hear us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

RESPONSE. Be nigh unto us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. The Lord redeemeth the souls of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

RESPONSE. Redeem us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

RESPONSE. Redeem us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me.

RESPONSE. Redeem us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Shall thy loving kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

RESPONSE. Save us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. We spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength, labor, and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

RESPONSE. Teach us, oh Lord!

PRELATE. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting, upon them that fear him.

RESPONSE. Show mercy, oh Lord!

PRELATE. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed; in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written,—Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

RESPONSE. O death, where is thy sting! O grave, where is thy victory!

PRELATE. The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

RESPONSE. Thanks be to God!

E. COMMANDER. Shall the memory of our departed brother fade from among men?

RESPONSE. It is cherished in our soul forever!

E. COMMANDER. Shall no record be left of his virtues and worth?

RESPONSE. It is inscribed upon our hearts; it is written in our archives; the heart may cease to throb, and the archives may moulder and decay; but the tablets of the Recording Angel on high can never perish.

The Recorder here opens the Book of Records of the Commandery, on which a page is set apart, suitably inscribed, and says:

Thus it is written

The Sir Knights uncover and bow their heads.

E. COMMANDER. He was a true and courteous knight, and has fallen in life's struggle full knightly with his armor on, prepared for knightly deeds.

PRELATE. Rest to his ashes, and peace to his soul!

RESPONSE. Rest to his ashes, and peace to his soul!

PRELATE. Sovereign Ruler of the Universe! into thy hands we devoutly and abmissively commit the departed spirit.

RESPONSE. Thy will be done, oh God!

THE FOLLOWING Hymn WILL BE SUNG.

The following PRAYER will then be made by the Prelate; (or an extemporaneous prayer may be made by him, or by any Clergyman present, as may be preferred)

FATHER OF LIGHTS! in this dark and trying hour of calamity and sorrow, we humbly lift our hearts to Thee. Give us, we pray, that light which cometh down from above. Thou hast mercifully said, in Thy holy word, that the bruised reed Thou wouldst not break; remember in mercy, oh Lord, before Thee. [Be Thou, at this hour, the Father of the fatherless, and the widow's God. Administer to them the consolations which they so sorely need.] Cause us to look away from these sad scenes of frail mortality, to the hopes which lie beyond the grave, and bind us yet closer together in the ties of brotherly love and affection. While we see how frail is man, and how uncertain the continuance of our lives upon the earth, and are reminded of our own mortality, lead us by Thy grace and spirit to turn our thoughts to those things which make for our everlasting peace; and give us a frame of mind to make a proper improvement of all the admonitions of Thy providence, and fix our thoughts more devotedly on Thee, the only sure refuge in time of need. And at last, when our earthly pilgrimage shall be ended, "when the silver cord shall be loosed, and the golden bowl be broken," oh wilt Thou, in that moment of mortal extremity, be indeed Immanuel — Christ with us; may "the lamp of Thy love" dispel the gloom of the dark valley, and we be enabled, by the commendations of Thy Son, to gain admission into the blessed Asylum above; and, in Thy glorious presence, amidst its ineffable mysteries, enjoy a union with the spirits of the departed, perfect as is the happiness of heaven, and durable as the eternity of God. Amen!

RESPONSE. Amen, and Amen and Amen!

The procession will then form, and march to the place of interment in the same order as before.

On arriving at the place, while forming in order, a suitable Dirge, or the following Hymn may be sung:

Ah, too sad for words to tell;
Yet! though tears now dim each eye,
Hope we still, and sigh, farewell!

On reaching the grave, the Sir Knights will form a triangle around it, the base being at the foot, the E. Commander and Prelate being at the head of the grave, and the friends and relatives at the foot, and the services will thus proceed:

PRELATE. Sir Knights: There is one sacred spot upon the earth where the foot-falls of our march are unheeded; our trumpets quicken no pulse, and incite no fear; the rustling of our banners and the gleam of our swords awaken no emotion—it is the silent city of the dead, where we now stand. Awe rests upon every heart and the stern warrior's eyes are bedewed with feelings which never shame his manhood. It needs no siege, nor assault, nor beleaguering host, to enter its walls; we fear no sortie, and listen for no battle-shout. No Warder's challenge greets the ear, nor do we wait awhile with patience for permission to enter.

Hither must we all come at last; and the stoutest heart and the manliest form that surrounds me will then be led a captive, without title or rank, in the chains of mortality and the habiliments of slavery, to the King of Terrors.

But if he has been faithful to the Captain of his salvation, a true soldier of the Cross; if he has offered suitable gifts at the shrine of his departed Lord, and bears the signet of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, then may he claim to be of that princely house, and to be admitted to audience with the Sovereign Master of Heaven and Earth. Then will he be stripped of the chains of earthly captivity, and clothed in a white garment, glistening as the sun, and be seated with princes and rulers, and partake of a libation, not of death and sorrow, but of that wine which is drunk forever new in the Father's kingdom above.

We cannot come here without subdued hearts and softened affections. Often, as the challenge comes which takes from our side some loved associate, some cherished companion in arms, and often as the trumpet sounds its wailing notes to summon us to the death-bed, and to the brink of the sepulchre, we cannot contemplate "the part of earth" unmoved. Each successive death-note snaps some fibre which binds us to this lower existence, and makes us pause and reflect upon that dark and gloomy chamber where we must all terminate our pilgrimage. Well will it be for our peace then, if we can wash our hands, not only in token of sincerity, but of every guilty stain, and give honest and satisfactory answers to the questions required.

The sad and solemn scene, now before us, stirs up these recollections with a force and vivid power which we have hitherto unfelt. He who now slumbers in that last, long, unbroken sleep of death, was our brother. With him have we walked the pilgrimage of life, and kept watch and ward together in its vicissitudes and trials. He is now removed beyond the effect of our praise or censure. That we loved him, our presence here evinces, and we remember him in scenes to which the world was not witness, and where the better feelings of humanity were exhibited without disguise. That he had faults and foibles, is but to repeat what his mortality demonstrates — that he had a human nature not divine. Over those errors, whatever they may have been, we cast, while living, the mantle of charity; it should, with much more reason, enshroud him in death. We, who have been taught to extend the point of charity, even to a foe, when fallen, cannot be severe or merciless toward a loved brother.

The memory of his virtues lingers in our remembrance, and reflects its shining lustre beyond the portals of the tomb. The earthen vase, which has contained precious odors, will lose none of its fragrance though the clay be broken and shattered. So be it with our brother's memory.

The Junior Warden then removes the sword and hat from the coffin, which last will then be lowered into the grave, while the Prelate repeats as follows:

PRELATE. "I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die." To the earth we commit the mortal remains of our deceased brother, as we have already commended his soul to his Creator, with humble submission to Divine Providence. (Here cast some earth on the coffin.) Earth to earth; (here cast again,) ashes to ashes; (here cast more earth,) dust to dust; till the morn of the resurrection, when, like our arisen and ascended Redeemer, he will break the bands of death, and abide the judgment of the great day. Till then, friend, brother, Sir Knight, farewell! Light be the ashes upon thee, and "may the sunshine of Heaven beam bright on thy waking!"

RESPONSE. Amen, and Amen and Amen!

The Junior Warden then presents the sword to the E. Commander, who says:

E. COMMANDER. Our departed brother Sir Knight was taught, while living that this sword, in his hands, as a true and courteous Knight, was endowed with three most estimable qualities: its hilt with fortitude undaunted; its blade with justice impartial and its point with mercy unrestrained. To this lesson, with its deep emblematical significance, we trust he gave wise heed. He could never grasp it without being reminded of the lively significance of the attributes it inculcated. He has borne the pangs of dissolving nature — may we trust that it was with the same fortitude that he sustained the trials of this passing existence; to his name and memory be justice done, as we hope to receive the like meed ourselves; and may that mercy, unrestrained, which is the glorious attribute of the Son of God, interpose in his behalf to blunt the sword of divine justice, and admit him to the blessed companionship of saints and angels in the realms of light and life eternal!

RESPONSE. Amen, and Amen, and Amen!

The Senior Warden then presents a Cross to the Prelate, who says:

PRELATE. This symbol of faith — the Christian's hope, and the Christian's trust — we again place upon the breast of our brother, there to remain till the last trumpet shall sound, and earth and sea yield up their dead. Though it may, in the past history of our race, have been perverted at times into an ensign of oppression, and crime, and wrong; though it may have been made the emblem of fraud, and superstition, and moral darkness, yet its significance still remains as the badge of a Christian warrior. It calls to mind Gethsemane and its sorrowful garden; the judgment-hall of Pilate, and the pitiless crown of thorns; Golgotha and Calvary, and their untold agonies, that fallen man might live and inherit everlasting life. If an inspired Apostle was not ashamed of the Cross, neither should we be; if he gloried in the significance of the truths it shadowed forth, so ought we to rejoice in it as the speaking witness of our reliance beyond the grave. May this hope of the living have been the anchor to the soul of our departed brother — the token to admit him to that peaceful haven "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest."

RESPONSE. Amen, and Amen, and Amen!

The Prelate then casts the Cross into the grave, and continues:

PRELATE. The orders of Christian Knighthood were instituted in a dark period of the world's history, but their mission was high and holy. To succor and protect the sorrowing and destitute, the innocent and oppressed, was their vow and their life-long labor and duty. For long, long years, they well and nobly performed their vows, and did their devoirs. In those rude ages the steel blade was oftener the arbiter of justice, than the judgments of judicial tribunals, or the decrees of magistrates. So long as the Templars adhered to their vows of poverty, they were virtuous and innocent, and their language was, in truth, "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have, give I unto thee." But, with the accession of wealth and civil power, they were tempted and fell from their high estate, and their possessions attracted the cupidity, and their prowess incurred the hatred of the despots of those times. When the martyred De Molay had perished, and the Order was proscribed, they united with the fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons, and returned to their primitive simplicity of manners; and a rough habit, coarse diet, and severe duty, was all that was offered to their votaries.

In our land we have perpetuated only the distinctive rites, with the appellations and regulations of the defenders of the Holy Sepulchre — the early champions and soldiers of the Cross — and this as a guerdon of merit, not a badge of rank. The sword, in our hands, is more as a symbol of the duties we are vowed to fulfil, than as an instrument of assault or defence. We claim to exercise practical virtues in the holy bonds of our confraternity, in humble imitation of those renowned knights of the olden time; for there is still, in this refined age, innocence to be guarded, widowed hearts to be relieved of their burdens, and orphanage to be protected from the chill blasts of a wintry world. And to be true and courteous is not limited to any age or clime.

Our brother, whose cold and lifeless remains have just been committed to the earth, was one of our fraternal band, bound by the same ties and pledged to the same duties. To his bereaved and mourning friends and relatives, we have but little of worldly consolation to offer, but we do tender to them our heart-felt sympathies. And if the solemn and interesting ceremonies, in which we have been engaged, have not pointed to them a higher hope and a better consolation, then all our condolences would be in vain.

Sir Knight companions, let us pray :

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God! we adore Thee as the Sovereign Ruler of all events, both in time and for eternity. As it hath pleased thee to take from our ranks one dear to our hearts, we beseech thee to bless and sanctify unto us this dispensation of Thy providence. Inspire our hearts with wisdom from on high, that we may glorify Thee in all our ways. May we have Thy divine assistance, oh, most merciful God! to redeem our misspent time; and in the discharge of the important duties Thou hast assigned us in our moral warfare here below, may we be guided by faith and humility, courage and constancy, to perform our allotted pilgrimage acceptable in Thy sight, without asking a remission of years from Thee. And when our career on earth is finished, and the sepulchre appointed for all the living receives our mortal bodies, may our souls, disengaged from their cumbrous dust, flourish and bloom in eternal day, and enjoy that rest which Thou hast prepared for Thy good and faithful servants in Thy blessed Asylum of peace beyond the veils of earth. All which we ask through the mediation of our Redeemer, King of kings, and Lord of lords. Amen!

RESPONSE. Amen, and Amen, and Amen!

'Tis for Thee, Emanuel.

When the storm-clouds darkly lower
On our pathway dark and fell,
Knights heroic will not cower,
Cheered by Thee, Emanuel.

When death's fearful damps are stealing,
And is breathed the last "Farewell!"
All the brighter world revealing,
Thou shalt come, Emanuel!

The Sir Knights may then escort the friends of the deceased to their home, or return to their Asylum, as may be expedient.
